From "Portrait and Biographical Album of Oakland County, Michigan" [Chapman Bros., Chicago, 1891], p. 468, biography of his son, William E. Carpenter:
"The late B. K. Carpenter, one of the pioneers of this county, was born in the State of New York in 1810 and reared on a farm with limited educational advantages. At the age of twenty-five, in the vigor of a stalwart manhood, he came to Michigan in 1835 and located in Orion Township, this county. His first purchase comprised eighty acres of land, which he improved and made his home for twelve years. Two years later, after his arrival, in 1837, he bought one hundred and twenty acres in Waterford Township, which he partially improved while still residing in Orion Township. In 1847 he removed to the farm on section 20, and there passed the remainder of his life, dying in 1889 at the age of seventy-nine years."

Sarah Ann Rodenbo Carpenter

Death: Jan. 30, 1909
Pontiac
Oakland County
Michigan, USA
Daughter of John and Hannah Rodenbo; wife of Benedict K. Carpenter; mother of Anna, William E. John D. Carrie L. and Charles H. Carpenter.

From "Portrait and Biographical Album of Oakland County, Michigan" [Chapman Bros., Chicago, 1891], p. 468, biography of Sarah's son, William E. Carpenter:
"The maiden name of the mother of our subject was Sarah A. Rodenbo. She was born in New Jersey, whence she removed with her parents to New York and later, in 1837, came to Michigan. Her marriage, which took place in 1847, was blest with four children, namely: William E.; John D., a physician at Raleigh, Mo.; Carrie L., who is unmarried and lived with the mother; and Charles H., who resides at Puget Sound. The mother survives at an advanced age, and as one who shared in the toils and privations of frontier life and who is ever ready to lend a helping hand to those around her, as well as for that character which is the crowning glory of womanhood, she receives the hearty respect of all to whom she is known."

CHARLES K. CARPENTER.
This gentleman was born January 23, 1826, in Hornellsville, Steuben county, New York. His father, Daniel P. Carpenter, was born in 1781, in Westchester county. New York. His mother's maiden name was Anna Ketcham, and she was born in the town of Cornwall, Orange county. New York, in 1787. Her ancestors formerly lived on Long Island, but removed to Orange county at a very early day.
On his father's side his ancestors were from Rhode Island. Mr. Carpenter's grandfather and great-grandfather both bore the name of Benedict. They were descendants of William Carpenter, who emigrated from Amesbury, England, and settled in Rhode Island. Charles K. Carpenter spent his boyhood, until he was eleven years of age, in Steuben county, and the last winter of this time he was employed with an ox-team hauling pine saw-logs to McBurney's mill. Each morning saw him in the woods by daylight ready for his daily work. In 1837 he came with his parents to Orion, Oakland County,. Michigan, and for the succeeding three years he lived whexe Rudd's mill now isj-working hard clearing land and hauling saw-logs, and, as may be imagined, 'widi very limited opportunity for schooling ; six months' attendance at tlje district iS(^ool -J^ing the sum total after he was ten years old. "
* In 1840 his parents removed to the place where Mr. Carpenter now resides. From that date until he was twenty-one years of age his summers, were occupied in working on the new farm, and his winters in chopping mill-logs and thrashing grain with a flail. On the 27th of November, 1847, he married Jennett Ooryedl, who was born in Mount Morris, Livingston county, New York, March 9, 1831. Sh^-was the daughter of George and Eliza Sherwood Coryell. George Coryell was from Ovid, Seneca county. New York, and his wife from Herkimer county. She^was a descendant of the Hendersons on her mother's side, and came with her parents to Michigan in 1846, and settled in Orion township, where she has ever since resided. Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Carpenter are the parents of eight children, seven of whom are living. Their oldest son, Clinton, died when twenty moaths old. The names of those living are as follows : Rolla C. Carpenter, professor of mathematics and civil engineering in the Michigan State Agricultural College, at Lansing, was born June 2i>, 1852 ; W. L. Carpenter, now a law student in tfie University of Michigan, was born November 9, 1855; Emma Blanche Carpenter was born March 19, 1857 ; Louis G. Carpenter was born March 28, 1861 ; Mary Carpenter was born August 25, 1866 ; George Carpenter was born November 27, 1869 ; and Jennett Carpenter was born January 27, 1875. Mr. Carpenter has always followed the occupation of farming. He has been an active and efficient member of the Oakland County Agricultural Society since its organization ; was one of the original incorporators^ and a director' for twenty years. He was also president of the society for two years. He has from time to time furnished many valuable papers to the s^cultural pi^ss of the State, and has for the. past few y^ars been prominent in the ranks of the new agricultural- order familiarly known as " grangers." In his younger days Mr. Carpenter was politically a Democrat ; but at the time of the division upon the " Kansas-Nebraska" bill between !&far. Buchanan and Mr. Douglas, he cast his fortunes with the doctrine of " popular sovereignty," and was elected as a Douglas Democrat to tlie State legislature from the Pontiac district, in 1859.
On the breaking out of the great Rebellion in 1861, he followed the dying advice of Douglas, and becanae a " War Democrat," taking a very active part in shaping public sentiment and sustaining the administration of Mr. Lincoln in its efforts to preserve the Union. During the war the duties of superintending enlistments and paying bounties for his township devolved almost wholly upon him. Mr. Carpenter wm one of the incorporator of the Detroit and Bay City rail- way ; was one of the first directora, and very active in securing local subscriptions and right of way ; and to his efforts is largely due the location of the road through Orion and Oxford, instead of Romeo and Fish Lake, he having devoted two years of incessant labor to the accomplishment of this end. He is still one of the directors, himself and Mr. James F. Joy being the only ones residing in the State.

Politically, Mr. Carpenter has not acted with the Democratic party since 1861. When the •• Prohibition party" was formed in Michigan, he became at once an active member, and was a presidential elector on that ticket in 1870. In 1872 his friends procured his nomination for the office of auditor-general on the same ticket, and in 1874 he was put in nomination for governor. In 1876 he was presidential elector at large. In the latter year the ' Greenback" party nominated Mr. Carpenter for governor, but he having never acted with that organization declined the nomination. During the past few years Mr. Carpenter has devoted much time to the devel- opment of Island Park, in Orion (or Canandaigua) lake, as a pleasure resort; and the success of the association and the popularity of the locality is largely due to his organizing ability. Under his liberal and judicious management it has be- come a famous r^ort for church and Sabbath-school excursions, and one of the most popular places of recreation in Michigan.

John, I found a discrepency in your records with those of the old Westechester county book, "Early wills of Westchester County, New York : from 1664 to 1784 "
It has an appendix on the HAVILANDs of Westchester County, NY with a lot of genealogical information.
This has William Haviland Jr., s/o William & Anna (Griffen) Haviland, born 7-19-1811, New Castle, N.Y., d. 2-3-1889, Brooklyn, NY, married 10/30/1839 to Esther Seaman, b. 4/22/1809, d. 8/25/1891, Brooklyn, NY. They had David S., Walter, Mary E., Ella, Frank, Alfred and Edward.
The William F. Haviland that you have married to Sarah Ann Carpenter, is possibly the same as William F. Haviland, s/o Solomon Haviland and Abigail Halstead?
Let me know if you get these alright, and what you think of this.
Thank you
Marilyn (Heavilin) Current

A bit of detail: My great-aunt Esther Hunter Carpenter (1894-1981) was the daughter of William F.M. Carpenter, who was the son of Isaac Carpenter (DHC962) & Esther Griffin. Aunt Esther lived with us for many years, and, at the end of her life, lived with the family of my first cousin Barbara Carpenter French (who had some correspondence with the Cousins some years back). Our Aunt Esther was an enthusiastic genealogist, and Barbara inherited her notes, which she shared with me.
Aunt Esther's brother was Edward Griffin Carpenter, who was my grandfather - and his son (Barbara's father) and grandson (Barbara's brother) have this same name; i.e., "Griffin" remains in the family, as well as "Esther." I realize that this is anecdotal ...

HOWEVER: I have reason to believe that the Cousins records might have a contradictory ID of this line, owing, possibly, to there being lots of Daniel Griffen/Griffins in the Quaker burial ground in Purchase.
I believe that Esther Griffin's father was Daniel [QP435] Griffin (1798-1876); and her mother was Anne/Anna Cornell [QP436] -- and the Cornells seem to have been as dedicated to family history as the Carpenters.
I'd love to untangle this web some time!
Anyway: many many thanks to you, and best wishes -
Gail

5898. Chandler George Brundige

Information on this line supplied by Carol Brundage PO Box 292 Northampton, MA 01061-0292 via email July 2009.

5905. George Reuben Brundige

George lived 50 years and married at age 28. He was a carpenter contractor.

BURIAL: Southview Cem., Lot 32, Southwest 1/4, section H.

George Reuben Brundige, who married Lydia Hathaway, had an inherited kidney disease. Lydia's father, Ambrose was a Civil War veteran. Her mother took over the family finances when he returned, he was incapacitated. She was a good business woman, dealing in mortgages.. not giving out the deed until the last payment was made. (first motel in the United States, began the old ladies home in North Adams, smoked a pipe). Lydia descends from Gov. William Pynchon, who came over with Winthrop. She descends from William Davis, first Knights Templar in the United States. She also descends from General James Cudworth. I have photos of them. Lydia was a stunning blonde. Her second husband was Gardiner Bentley.

Information on this line supplied by Carol Brundage of Lee, MA via email July 2009.

POSTED BY: Thomas A. Murray.
I actually have something on this couple. It's rare that I do, as what I do have tends to fade out after the 1850's.
HARRIET "HATTIE" FLEWWELLIN b. 15 DEC 1891, d. 21 OCT 1918, m. 6JUN1909 WILLIAM HENRY CARPENTER (b. 17JUN1885, d. 1971), son of Joseph Carpenter. Their daughter was: OLIVE BRADY CARPENTER b. 20 DEC 1913.

And that's about it. I have added in your information as well.
Harriet was the daughter of:
CHARLES FLEWWELLIN b. 27NOV1859, m. 19NOV1882 MARY EMMA FLEWWELLIN(b. 24OCT1862), daughter of Levi and Elizabeth (McCormack) Flewwellin
Charles Flewwellin was the son of:
LAMOREAU FLEWWELLIN b. ca. 1831, m. _____BEDELL (The Bedells are another family from Long Island.)
Lamoreau Flewwellin was the son of:
WRIGHT FLEWWELLIN b. ca. 1800, d. 1891, m. JEMIMA (b. ca. 1800, possibly maiden name was Tompkins or Tomlins.) In Yorktown in 1820; in New Castle in 1830 and 1850
Wright Flewwellin was the son of:
ROBERT G. FLEWWELLIN b. ca. 1772, m. MARTHA WRIGHT
Robert G. Flewwelling I am fairly sure was the son of:
Robert Flewwellin was the son of Robert and Maplet (Jeacockes?) Flewelling of North Castle, Westchester Co., NY. This was a Quaker branch of the family, which may explain some movements of the family in later years. Robert Flewwellin was born (from census evidence) about 1750 ± 5 years. His will was made 4MAR1828 and probated 30JUN1828. His wife was Mary Searles (or Sarles) (b. 8FEB1755, and d. 3MAY1849, d/o John Sarles (11MAY1732-27AUG1810) and Hannah Ireland (14MAY1735-20DEC1821.) He lived in Yorktown, Westchester Co., NY To go back to Mary Emma Flewwellin who married Charles Flewwellin. She was the daughter of:
LEVI FLEWWELLIN b. 1805, d. 2SEP1875, m. ELIZABETH McCORMACK(d. 25 FEB 1900),In 1850, Levi was with his parents in Yorktown, presumably single. He appears to have married when he was in his early 50's, and is said to have lived in White Plains, N. Y.
Levi Flewwellin was the son of:
EZEKIEL FLEWWELLIN b. 27MAY1779, d. 17JUN1853, m. TAMAR WASHBURN (b. 30OCT1786, d. 21MAR1853), daughter of Joseph and Freelove (Mathews) Washburn. Tamar's brother, Reuben Washburn, married Ezekiel's sister, Hannah Flewwellin.
Ezekiel Flewwelling was the son of Robert and Mary (Searles) Flewwellin above. Robert was the son of Robert and Maplet Flewelling. Robert Flewelling was the son of Thomas and Hannah (Smith) Flewelling. Something of their ancestry can be found at http://members.tripod.com/thomasamurray1/index.htm.

As I mentioned, I have nothing to continue this line and would be happy to add anything you can offer to the compilation on Robert and Maplet's family that I am working on.

5946. James Henry See Notes Carpenter

NOTE: This maybe (most likely is) a Zimmerman / Carpenter line from this individual on. See below.

He went to Texas in 1883. Married in Christian or Todd County, KY.
He settle in Mertens or Brandon then later went to Hillsboro, Hill county, Texas. He married twin sisters. Cynthia was 1/2 Potawatomia Indian. Name of first wife unknown.

MARRIAGE: J. H. Carpenter married Cynthia Thompson, ceremony performed by Thomas H. Shaw, Minister of the Gospel. Witnesses: Josiah & George Gray, married at the home of Mr. Thompson.

CENSUS: 1880 Census of Christian County, KY, page 286 #92/96:
Carpenter J. F. (should be J. H.) age 27 TN, Cynthia age 23 TN, Willie age 3 TN, and George age 2 TN.

Phyllis Collins Rummel of Austin, TX submitted this descendantcy line in March 1998. James Henry Carpenter's father was John H. Carpenter with a mother listed as Cynthia Thompson. It is possible they came from Kentucky.
It is not proven that John Henry Carpenter that went south from Westchester county, New York is the correct father. This is a temporary connection pending further investigation. JRC 4/98. Phyllis indicates some of her records list her Carpenters as "Carpentier."

Any suggestions? I have the information showing that we go back to Hans Zimmerman (John Carpenter) Chrisitan, Christian, John (Cumberland) to Daniel, To James. The info does look very convincing.
Do you know where I can get the book "Carpenters A'Plenty, by Robert C. Carpenter?
Seems a lot of the information came from that book as well as census.
The Mt Vernon Precinct shows James Henry Carpenter, wife Cynthia Thompson (which I have SGorin's bio, Making it a strong possibility that Cynthia came from Woodford Co..... Ky, not Tn.) Son Willie and George were all born in Tn. But my Grand Father George Green Carpenter said he was born in Hopkinsville, Ky. James and Cynthia were married in Christian Co Ky. Any suggestions? Could they of just put that they were all born in Tn? Since the head of household was born in Tn? When in reality that maybe only John was born in Tn. Hans was over here in the 1700, what did you mean about the 200 years difference. I am not familiar with the French Carpentier. Just heard how they spelled there name. Since the Indian and French fought together it has just raised questions for me.
Thanks Phyllis.

Edythe D. Davis Hansen
Birth: 3 May 1918 Pendleton, Umatilla County, Oregon, USA
Death: 24 Jan 2012 (aged 93) Gresham, Multnomah County, Oregon, USA
Burial: Ocean View Cemetery, Warrenton, Clatsop County, Oregon, USA
Memorial #: 84009305
Bio: Edythe (Davis) Hansen of Gresham, Oregon passed away January 24, 2012. She was born May 3, 1918 in Pendleton, Oregon to Rodman and Grace Davis.

Edythe lived in Pendleton for the first several years of her life, but then moved to Gresham and Portland. She graduated from Gresham High School in 1936.

On December 13, 1945, Edythe married Karl Hansen at Trinity Lutheran Church in Gresham. They were married for nearly 60 years, until Karl passed away in 2002. She worked as a bookkeeper, accountant and secretary for most of her life.

Edythe was a member of First Baptist Church in Gresham, where she belonged to the bible study group, and was on the Missions Committee until she retired at 92. Edythe was a caring and loving woman, and always a gracious host. She loved to entertain, especially card games with friends and family. She enjoyed travel with Karl to Arizona for the winter; after Karl's death she traveled with her son, Roger. Edythe was an avid stamp collector. Edythe was very skilled at Brazilian embroidery, but also enjoyed being outdoors. Whatever she was doing, Edythe needed to be active, preferring to read rather than just sit still.

Edythe was preceeded in death by her husband Karl, son Roger, and sisters Fleta Davis and Dolores Lind. She is survived by her brother Vayne R. Davis of Chandler, AZ, and her many nieces and nephews.

A funeral service will be held for Edythe on Friday at 10:00AM at First Baptist Church in Gresham with reception to follow. Edythe will be laid to rest privately at Oceanview Cemetery in Warrenton, Oregon. Arrangements under the care of Bateman Carroll Funeral Home.

Memorial #: 110201328
Wm E. "Bill" Holmes

Dad was born in Spokane in the summer of 1915, but adopted and celebrated that day, October 28 as a birthday, too. Harry and Myrtle Holmes were great parents; I was with him and saw his grief at the memorials for both of them.

With his parents and sisters Harriet and Ruth, they settled near Gresham Oregon during his school days. The Great Depression interrupted his college education, but he was well-read and that benefited him his entire life. He was married to several women; my mother was his third wife, and I know but little of his earlier brides. Elder half brother Bob I knew very little, and half sister Annie I knew better when I was very small. My step mother Lillian Bjur was a wonderful woman, and I miss her too. RIP, Dad.

Benjamin was a physician. He married Phebe Carpenter in Ferrisburg Township, Addison County or Montpelier, Addison County, on December 8, 1808. Their children were born in Ferrisburg and Lincoln, VT.
After his marriage to Phebe Carpenter, he settled in Starksboro, Addison County, just a bit farther up north from Lincoln where he practiced medicine. In 1817, they moved to Lincoln. Their farm was about a mile north of the town center off what is now Quaker Road, named "Maple Grove." Maple sugar was one of their products of the farm.
I visited the farm in August 2003. The original house has been torn down; and a more recent house stands East of the original. The original was near the place a garage stands now.
It is said that Dr. Benjamin Taber was tall, slim, height was past the median size. He was the first physician living in Lincoln and the only one for several years. He rode through the countryside visiting patients for over 40 years until well past 60 years of age.
You can find three of his sons and several grandchildren buried in the Hesper Public Cemetery, Hesper, Winnisheik, Iowa – David, Russel and B. J. (Benjamin James) Taber. Some may be listed under Tabor.

"Coles' wife was mentioned in the obituary in the "Saint John Globe", 22MAR1894:""Death removed from our midst a few days ago an aged resident who was at one time widely known. We refer to Mrs. Coles Carpenter who died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. Harvey on Germain Street. Mrs. Carpenter lived the longest of a family who were noted for their longevity and although 92 years of age, the ravages of time had not impaired her faculties. Mrs. Carpenter was the d/o James Green, an officer in the British army, who after serving in the Revolutionary War, came to St. John with the Loyalists in 1783. He removed to Wickham (Queens Co.). The deceased lady, who was his youngest child, was born at Wickham in 1802. She was twice married, her first husband being Willit Carpenter, a man-of-war officer and her second the late Coles Carpenter of Wickham, who died in 1878. They had a family of ten children, eight of whom are now living. Mrs. Carpenter's great memory made her a most interesting person to converse with. Many little incidents in the history of St. John she remembered vividly and she never grew tired in telling about some of the more important events. She recollected the war of 1812 and witnessed the departure of the old 104th Regiment from St. John to Quebec on their famous march on snow shoes. She also remembered and could graphically describe the scenes attending the large fires that devestated St. John in its early days. Up to the last her memory was clear and retentive. She could repeat long verse of poetry and whole chapters of Scripture. She was a sincere Christian, being of the Baptist denomination. Her remains were temporarily interred in the cemetery vault, and as soon as navigation opens they will be taken to Wickham for interment. Four generations were represented at her funeral."The 104th are generally considered to have begun their famous journey to Quebec from Fredericton, rather than Saint John. Likely she recalled some portion of the New Brunswick Fencibles leaving to muster at Fredericton. Her daughter lived at 269 Germain St. This was her daughter by her 1st marriage, Mary Ann Carpenter (d/o late Willet Carpenter, m. Wickham Parish, Queens Co., NB by the Rev. Benjamin Merritt 12AUG1852 Capt. John Harvey of the barque, "Canmore"."Coles (59) and Catherine (59) Carpenter were farming in Wickham Parish, Queens Co., NB in 1861. This census also states they had one death in the past year. I assume this to be Hanford Carpenter, youngest son of Coles Carpenter, who d. AUG1860. With them were daughters, Eliza, 'Agness' and Julia; as well as their son, Coles, with his wife, 'Adlade' and daughter, Charlotte."Quite nearby, four households away and just beyond Adelaide (Watson) Carpenter's parents, is 'Archielus' Carpenter (61), with another 'Archielus' Carpenter (90, American, b, New York) and their domestic servant, Ann Lackey (b. County Derry, Ireland ca. 1781)."...

Possibly Sarah Magdalen Cypher baptized 17AUG1800, d/o John Tompkins and 'Elisabeth' (Albright) Cypher. This seems especially likely as John Tompkins and Elizabeth (Albright) Cypher also had a son, 'Ladowich' (Lodowick or Ludowick) Cypher baptized 8MAR1806. The mother. Elizabeth may have been a Jewett as a daughter was Catharine 'Jewet' Cypher baptized at the same time as Lodowick. However Sarah M. Cypher m. 9SEP1819 William Burke (baptized 8MAR1806), s/o William and Elizabeth (Nevers) Burke of the Range in Queens Co. Also, the Lodowick Cypher of 1861 was b. in 1816 and the one baptized in 1806 is more likely 'Loderwick' Sypher (4JUL1802-22JUN1897), buried in the Sypher Cemetery in Queens Co. Coles' neighbor in 1861 was likely 'Lodewig' Sypher (b. ca. JUL1815, d. 19MAY1906), buried in Union Corner Cemetery, Richmond Parish. I do not know if Coles' wife was Sarah Cypher (Sypher). He apparently was still in Queens Co., NB in 1851 and most of the census for Queens Co. for that year is 'missing'. He does not seem to have moved to Carleton Co. by then and appears first, possibly a widower, in Richmond Parish, Carleton Co., NB in 1861. A 'next door' neighbour was Lodowick (various spellings) Cypher (b. ca. 1816). In 1851, Richmond Parish (created in 1853) was part of Woodstock Parish. Neither appears in Woodstock Parish in 1851. Lodowick had a son, Coles C. Sypher (b. ca. 1850, d. 10MAY1857). While 'names-the-same' Genealogy is dangerous, I cannot help but wonder if David S. Carpenter was not named for David Sypher (ca. 1778-1844). Since Lodowick (b. ca. 1816) was not the son of John Tompkins and Elizabeth (Albright) Cypher it seems likely that he was the son of John's brother, David, both sons of "Ludowich or Ludwig" Sypher born ca. 1737 in Dutchess County, NY, d. 1822, married 21DEC1770 Sarah Magdalene Tompkins. David Sypher married Mary Earle and, although buried in Queens Co., NB, he is said to have moved to Houlton, Aroostook Co., ME. He died in Canning Parish, Queens Co., NB 2SEP1844 age 66-years. If Coles Carpenter married a Sarah Sypher, then she was likely, it appears, Sarah Magdala Cyphers baptized Grand Lake, Queens Co., NB 10MAR1811, daughter of David and Mary Cyphers. It is suggested that this Sarah died in 1810 but when he died, David was survived by five children suggesting that she was still alive.That Coles' wife was Sarah Sypher is indicated by the death record of his daughter, Rebecca J., in my notes as:"REBECCA J. CARPENTER (youngest daughter of Coles Carpenter when married) b. Gagetown, Queens Co., NB ca. 1840-44, d. 13 Rill St., Boston, Suffolk Co., NB 21SEP1910 age 66-years, m. South Richmond, Carleton Co., NB by the Rev. J. T. Parsons 8JUN1864 DAVID CURRIER of Gagetown, Queens Co., NB."Rebecca J. Currier's death record has her born in Gagetown, but this may not be wholly accurate but more in the sense of in the neighbourhood of Gagetown. She was given as the wife of David Currier and the d/o Coles Carpenter and of Sarah 'Spher'."Similarly, for Rebecca's sister, Phoebe, there is:"PHOEBE E. CARPENTER b. Upper Gagetown, Queens Co., NB ca. 17NOV1830, d. 93 Harvard St., Boston, Suffolk Co., MA 6JUN1907 age 76 years, 6 months and 19 days, m. THOMAS W. EBBETT."Phoebe's death record gave her father, Coles, as also born in Gagetown and her mother as Sarah 'Supher'."Thus, it appears that Coles' wife was Sarah Syphers, apparently the daughter of David Syphers.... "Coles' wife was mentioned in the obituary in the "Saint John Globe", 22MAR1894:""Death removed from our midst a few days ago an aged resident who was at one time widely known. We refer to Mrs. Coles Carpenter who died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. Harvey on Germain Street. Mrs. Carpenter lived the longest of a family who were noted for their longevity and although 92 years of age, the ravages of time had not impaired her faculties. Mrs. Carpenter was the d/o James Green, an officer in the British army, who after serving in the Revolutionary War, came to St. John with the Loyalists in 1783. He removed to Wickham (Queens Co.). The deceased lady, who was his youngest child, was born at Wickham in 1802. She was twice married, her first husband being Willit Carpenter, a man-of-war officer and her second the late Coles Carpenter of Wickham, who died in 1878. They had a family of ten children, eight of whom are now living. Mrs. Carpenter's great memory made her a most interesting person to converse with. Many little incidents in the history of St. John she remembered vividly and she never grew tired in telling about some of the more important events. She recollected the war of 1812 and witnessed the departure of the old 104th Regiment from St. John to Quebec on their famous march on snow shoes. She also remembered and could graphically describe the scenes attending the large fires that devestated St. John in its early days. Up to the last her memory was clear and retentive. She could repeat long verse of poetry and whole chapters of Scripture. She was a sincere Christian, being of the Baptist denomination. Her remains were temporarily interred in the cemetery vault, and as soon as navigation opens they will be taken to Wickham for interment. Four generations were represented at her funeral."\"The 104th are generally considered to have begun their famous journey to Quebec from Fredericton, rather than Saint John. Likely she recalled some portion of the New Brunswick Fencibles leaving to muster at Fredericton. Her daughter lived at 269 Germain St. This was her daughter by her 1st marriage, Mary Ann Carpenter (d/o late Willet Carpenter, m. Wickham Parish, Queens Co., NB by the Rev. 680. Israel Carpenter

Number 302 in the book, the Carpenter Family in America by Daniel H.Carpenter, 1901.
He appears to have been born in or near Hempstead like his elder sister, yet called White Plains home. He went to White Plains with his parents and married there. His wife and at least one daughter died there.

He apparently went west and remarried, possibly in of, Bedford, Bedford, PA.

The BIG QUESTION is if the Israel who married Susan Hess is the same Israel who is Number 302 above. While there are similarities, only DNA can tell for sure.

1627. Rebecca Carpenter

Number 702 in the book, the Carpenter Family in America by Daniel H. Carpenter, 1901. No family listed.

1628. Hannah F. Carpenter

A builder listed at 217 Delancey Street in 1862.

1632. Samuel Mott Carpenter

Number 707 in the book, the Carpenter Family in America by Daniel H. Carpenter, 1901. No family listed.

687. Samuel Carpenter

Mary Evelyn Harlow Carpenter has this Samuel as the brother to Joseph Jr., ie not his son. However this would have made Joseph Sr. about age 78 when this Samuel would have been born. This is possible, but not probable.

690. Moses Mann

Moses moved to Green County, KY and lived with his wife's cousin, Sgt. John Carpenter. Moses Mann and Sgt. John Carpenter were also first cousins.

1634. Asa Mann

Asa Mann was fishing on the Rolling Fork River in Green County, KY with Sgt. John Carpenter's son, Moses when they were attacked by indians. Moses Carpenter was scalped and left for dead but was able to make his way back to Moses Mann's stockade and recovered from his wounds. (This had to be by 1802)

---

693. Thomas Carpenter

NOTE: Y-DNA has indicated a mismatch with Group 2 of the Carpenter Cousins Y-DNA Project.
Descendants of this Thomas are listed in ...
Group 13 via sons Burwell C#5349 and John C#5351. AND Group 8 via son William C-5455 and his son William "Buck" C-13296 and grandson Creed C-13302.

COMMENT:
The possibilities of why this maybe include the following reasons.
1) We have two Thomas Carpenters confused with each other.
2) Formal or informal adoption via marriage or some other means. For example: a woman marries and has two children then is widowed. She remarries a Carpenter and her sons assume the Carpenter surname. For such an event to happen say twice in a row is unlikely. This assumes the twice widow remarries a Carpenter not related to the other Carpenter. That is stretching it. JRC

* Thomas Carpenter-5337 (this person) was first listed as a son of Solomon Carpenter-5330 and Sudnah or Sudrah Hughes but this has been disproved. Solomon Carpenter-5330 has been proved as from being in Group 2 genetically.

NAME:
John Carpenter's father Thomas Carpenter was not called "Jack" -- another artifact from copying mistakes in an old and very poorly done genealogy by a fraudulent genealogist discredited in the 1980s after she was shown to be copying Virginia data for a North Carolina ancestor in an attempt to connect to New England ancestors and impress her friends. Y-DNA has disproved a connection between this set of NC Carpenters and the VA Carpenters to whom Thomas "Jack" Carpenter belonged.
According to testimony of a descendant of Thomas in the 1920s, "the Carpenters came from England to America about the time of the Revolutionary war, settling in North Carolina." There is no data showing Thomas was born in VA -- that was another product of the fraudulent genealogy.
Terry Lee Carpenter (TLC)

PARENTS:
Biological parents unknown - maybe adopted? Either way the Y-DNA does not come from Solomon Carpenter-5330 of the Providence, RI Carpenter (Group 2) lines!

DEATH:
Either he or his wife died either 6 Aug. 1803 or 6 Oct. 1803.*
He was identified as the "eldest son of solomon" in a court case om 5 May 1791 and served during Lord Dunmore's War in Captain John Lewis' company of Botetourt Volunteers in 1774 with brothers; John, Solomon and Jeremiah. He was wounded at the Battle of Point Pleasant in westeren Virginia on 10 Oct. 1774, the first battle of the Revolutionary War.
(This was for a different Thomas of VA)
* In the 1800 US Census - His wife is listed as head of house this indicating he was deceased. BUT, There is another record that matches his information, seemingly indicating he is still alive. Confusing! See Census data below.

BOOK: See page 40 (for notes) of the Mowrey 1997 book. See book information below:
UPDATE OF THE GENEALOGY OF THE NEW ENGLAND CARPENTER FAMILY OF ENGLISH ORIGIN - THE VIRGINIA / WEST VIRGINIA BRANCH - SOME DESCENDANTS OF JOSEPH CARPENTER - PIONEER OF THE JACKSON RIVER - MOWREY"S VERSION.
BY TERRY LEE CARPENTER AND PAUL THOMAS MOWREY.
PRO BONO PUBLICO - PRIVATELY PUBLISHED, DOVER, OHIO, 1997.
BY PAUL THOMAS MOWREY. Terry Lee Carpenter disagrees with the ancestry of Thomas "Jack" Carpenter. He believes there are 2 Thomas Carpenters confused.
NOTE: Y-DNA Proves TLC was correct!

1. John (17) Carpenter presented Solomon's discharge in Botetourt County court in February of 1780 and proved Solomon (15)'s Ranger service. He was identified as "son of Thomas Carpenter and heir of Solomon Carpenter" on this date and was issued a warrant for 60 acres of land as such. This relationship was restated in another Botetourt County court case on 5 May 1791.
2. William (17) Carpenter - no further information.
3. Thomas (17) Carpenter - no further information.
4. Ruben (17) Carpenter - no further information.
5. Burwell (17) Carpenter - no further information.

Others?

Thomas (16) Carpenter is found in the Nash county, North Carolina censuses of 1790 and 1800. Reuben and Thomas Jr. are also found in both surveys. William is in the 1800 census. Burwell is found in the adjoining county of Wake in 1790 and Nash county in 1800.
After Thomas's demise in 1803, these sons vascillate between Pendleton and Edgefield Counties in South Carolina and those counties surrounding Nash in North Carolina through 1840.
This writer (of the above book) has summaries of all of the Carpenters living in the United States 1790 through 1840 by census and finds them very helpful at times.

WFT is a big problem -- they just copy it and sell it, and they do put on a warning to check out the data but it is most often ignored completely. The disclaimer keeps them from being legally liable, but they know darn good and well what people are doing with the information and don't care as long as there is a buck to be made from the unsuspecting customer.

A genealogy faker put together a fake lineage from Thomas Carpenter of Nash Co. NC back to Thomas "Jack" Carpenter and Joseph
(SEE HIS SON JOHN AND THE NOTES!)
Carpenter of Botetourt, that has been circulating for well over 20 years now. All attempts to correct it have so far gone largely ignored because many of the descendants don't want it challenged and have actively tried to discredit anyone who tried to help them correct it. But in the long run, the truth will come out and the fakers will be discredited themselves. There are several others similar to that one that are also circulating widely at present. Just beware of the undocumented data out there! Regards, Terry Lee Carpenter.

Page 40: 2. Solomon (16) Carpenter was born circa 1745-1750, married Lucretia Prentice on September 1. 1783 with his brother, Thomas, as surety (His father Solomon (15) was already dead) and probably moved south after the volutionary War. He was one of the "five children called Carpenter" who was kidnapped by Indians during a raid on the Jackson River settlements in the middle of September 1756 and later released in Ohio in 1764 by Colonel Boquet. Solomon served in Captain John Lewis' Botetourt Volunteers in Lord Dunmore's War with his brothers; Thomas, Jeremiah and John. Enlisting with his brother, Amos, in 1776 in Captain Samuel Lapsley's company, in Colonel Nathaniel Gist's regiment, 12th Virginia Continental Line, they became the subject of a letter written by Colonel George Skillern to Virginia Governor Nelson from Botetourt County on June 26, 1777. He was in Captain William Harrod's company in Kentucky and may have returned there to live after the hostilities. His wife, Lucretia, was the daughter of Daniel Prentice who was counted in the list of tithables for Benjamin Hawkin's district in Botetourt County with the aforesaid and often mentioned Carpenters on August 12, 1771. (Several competent Carpenter Family researchers in the Braxton/Webster Counties area insist that Solomon was buried in the so-called Skidmore Bottom along with Jeremiah (page 41) and Benjamin. If so, this (or the fact that some of his children must have remained in that part of Virginia after he moved) would surely account for some of the Carpenters in West Virginia who obviously descended from old Joserph of the Jackson River but cannot be irrefuteably linked to any of his other children.)
Page 45: The most commonly heard story of Solomon (16) Carpenter's capture by the Indians has him living with his father, Solomon (15) Carpenter, and family somewhere in the wilds of Virginia along the frontier near a creek in Botetourt County about the year 1754 (Amos (16) Carpenter's birth). Some of the younger children were playing about the cabin, some were working in the fields with their parents and others, including Solomon, were roaming through the woods.

Solomon was about ten years old. Roving Indians captured him, took him to Ohio, adopted him into their tribe and raised him as an Indian. Years later he returned to civilization fully grown with the wild, undisciplined spirit of an Indian. It is said that Solomon was a favorite among the Indians because he was an accurate marksman, a wrestler par excellent and sang in a very loud voice.

Another interesting story that is proveably true involves Solomon (16) and his brother, Amos (16) Carpenter, during the Revolutionary War. A Captain Lapsley recruited Solomon, Amos and a friend, James Lyons, with the inducement that they (page 46) would be bodyguards to General George Washington at a higher pay than other soldiers. Their agreement with Captain Lapsley was not honored when they began training. Disgruntled with such treatment, the Carpenter brothers and Lyons deserted, returned home and hid out in the mountains. Other malcontents, dissenters and men who were avoiding military service joined them until their numbers were nearly fifty.

These renegades formed a formidable army, more than a match for the forces of law and order. They were well armed and well supplied with food and information about the activities of the authorities by friends, relatives and sympathizers and evaded capture for about four years. Unable to arrest the outlaw band, Colonel Skillern finally persuaded Solomon and some of his officers to agree to a peace talk. Solomon and his followers offered to serve two years in the Botetourt County Militia or under George Rogers Clark in exchange for amnesty. Colonel Skillern advised the Virginia Governor of the offer and recommended that he accept it. He did and added another forty-some hardened fighters to the Patriotic armies. They served honorably.

Page 47: Children of Solomon(16) Carpenter, of Solomon(15), of Joseph(14): Many historians and Carpenter genealogists speculate that all of Jeremiah's brothers went south within twenty or so years after the initial settlement on the Elk and Holly Rivers circa 1785. This is simply not true! With the exception of Thomas and, possibly, Solomon, all of them went west. Amos, Jesse, John and the Joseph who married Sinah Gillespie 15 December 1795 (if he is of this family) relocated on the Ohio River and beyond.
Solomon may have never left the area except on a temporay basis.
The weight of the available evidence certainly seem to indicate this.
John Davison Sutton stayed with and obtained supplies from a Carpenter other than Jeremiiah while doing a survey and study of land for his father in the summer of 1795 according to a notebook he kept during that journey. Upon visiting Jeremiah, he noted that the Solomon who was born in a cave on Camp Run was a lad of about six years. A Solomon Carpenter is found as head-of -household in the Randolph County censuses of 1810, 1820 and 1830. Jeremiah's son, Solomon, is found in the Nicholas County censuses of 1820 and 1830 as well as in the 1840 and later Braxton County (created, in part, from Nicholas) censuses. These are different Solomons!

Another contention that Solomon, he of "Solly's Cave", was the only one of Jeremiah's sons to live out his life in the Braxton and Webster Counties area is also untrue. John S. (and most of the daughters) can easily be proven to have remained there. Jeremiah Jr. and Amos are known to have followed uncles or other kin west.

This compiler cannot positively identify any of Solomon and Lucretta (Prentice) Carpenter's children at present, but the odds are that there were some. These and possible children of his brother Amos's first marriage may explain some of the many unplaced Carpenters in The Mountain State. The Jesse Carpenter who is found in the household of David and Catharine Given in the 1850 Braxton County census is placed here, but not proven. He is logically a nephew of Jeremiah, Jesse et cetera.

CHILDREN: Some researchers place the following children in this family but they are NOT FOR THIS FAMILY. They are for another Solomon:
1-Jeremiah CARPENTER, 2-Thomas CARPENTER, 3-Benjamin CARPENTER, and 4-Solomon CARPENTER.

Dear John,
Concerning the line in Carpenter Chronicles Vol. 6 -- The line really doesn't connect, yet. We have a strong and clear family tradition that my line was from Solomon Carpenter who married Lucretia Prentice or Prentiss in Botetourt Co. VA in 1783, and all the circumstantial and factual evidence supports that, but I have never been able to clearly document the connection, so I prefer to call it unconnected. Ours is definitely an English line, and the western VA lines are definitely the ones we come from, and I believe the family tradition is absolutely correct -- it just needs backing up with contemporaneous documentation. Solomon and Lucretia disappeared not long after their marriage, then surfaced in TN where my line came from, then disappear again, then he dies in Indiana where some in my line went, so I am reasonably sure he is the right one, however, until I can document it or completely eliminate any other possibilities, the connection has to remain "posited" -- but I say it is "unconnected" in order to keep people who don't understand that situation from claiming it is proved. I ran into that problem early on, and am much more careful about being very clear that the connection is not proved. I do intend to prove it someday though -- I believe the proof is out there, waiting to be discovered.

I have made some progress since this line was printed in 1990, but this direct line is still accurate. It is a double line, from Moses Carpenter and from Daniel Carpenter as shown, and both are English and go back to VA. There are a few "typo" errors in the line as published: in no. IV, Elijah C. Carpenter, his wife's name should be Emily Frances Cadle (not Sadle), he died 1918 (not 1928), she died in Doskey (not Tioskey), and their son's name is Walter Laugustus (not Langustus) Carpenter -- his name is also misspelled at no. V. In no. VI, my maternal grandfather's name is William Kindred (not Kinored) Thompson. In no. VII, my wife was born in Coahoma (not Coahonia) Co. MS. These all appear to be scanner-introduced errors that would be easy to miss if it were not one's personal data, and Bette did a fine job getting the most of it transcribed and reformatted to fit the Chronicles format.
For now, my line remains unconnected, but in future editions of the CD, I hope to have something more definitive. Thank you for including this line in your work! Terry.

Dear Terry Lee,
In Carpenter Chronicles Volume 6 1990 - it has your Carpenter Line as Branch # 15. It also states "Please refer to Volume #3, page 3- This is a continuation!"
However, I do not see how it continues. Does it?
Curious!
I wanted to try to add your line if at all possible. Does it connect with the Zimmerman or English or which line?

695. Amos Carpenter

Number 1124 in the Carpenter Memorial on page 172.
Family on page 762 (#1591). HOWEVER ... Parentage in the Carpeter Memorial has been proven wrong. Corrections below with census information corrected data. 4/1998 JRC. Probably not baptised in CT, but data is left for error notes and corrections.

AF has birth as 14 Feb. 1754. Carpenter Memorial has 10 Apr. 1765 but notes on page 839 corrects it as 14 Feb. 1754. This BD was for first wife.
Death date in CM notes.
!CM has marriage date as 10 May 1797 but the AF has 20 Feb 1803 as the marriage date. Their child Jerimiah was born 3 May 1803 (in VA) per the CM.
A child named Mary born 1800 is in the AF but not the CM.
This appears to be two (2) separate marriages. One child to each.
First wife was probably named "Mary."

As far as Amos, (Per Debi Grubb in E-Mail Message dated 3-29-98)
I didn't find much on him. I did get some census records though and the 1820(Rutland twp) shows Amos as over 45 with 1 male 16-26, 1 female 26-45, and 1 female 16-26. Amos is the only Carpenter listed in the 1820 Meigs county Ohio records.

I'm going to type up the other Carpenter census info and send to you later(and the other John). One thing I did find is on the 1850 Meigs census Margaret is listed as 74yo, b. VA, and living with her is Mary, 49yo, b.VA. I think this Mary is Margaret's stepdaughter by Amos and Mary(?)Bickle Carpenter.

There were a LOT more Carpenter's here than Amos in those early years. For example the 1816 Meigs tax list has an Asahel Carpenter and the 1820 Gallia census index has a John Carpenter. I haven't checked the Athens county area yet, but I have a Sarah Graham in my tree as a cousin who married Joseph Carpenter in Athens county on 2-27-1806(no further info).Then I found an article that said a Jeremiah Carpenter from VT settled here and the town of Carpenter is named after him. So I am trying to figure them out.

Thanks for the info you sent,

Sorry to bother you again.
Looks like Amos Carpenter, John Carpenter and Solomon Carpenter served in Gist's Regiment with Alexander Breckenridge and Samuel Lapsley.
Hugh McGloughlin also served in Gist's Regiment with Alexander Breckenridge.
Hugh's wife Agnes Gwin was the daughter of David Gwin. Joseph Carpenter served with David Gwin. Hugh's widow Agnes married James Wiley and their daughter married John Mclaughlin's son John McLaughlin. Some of his siblings married Carpenters descended from Joseph Carpenter.
There is quite a bit of cross over in the lists in Gist's regiment that served with Amos Carpenter and those that served with Hugh McGloughlin...

696. Jeremiah Carpenter

NAME: Middle name reported as Hughes, but no proof other than his mother was a Hughes. Years ago, one researcher started adding the mothers maiden name on their direct line. It took a life of its own and some swear by it.

PARENTS: There is a conflict of parents (SEE BELOW). The Mowrey 1997 book has Soloman has the father of Jeremiah who was captured by indians (and returned), yet another record listed below has William as the father.
William (..... of Joseph of Capt. Nathaniel Carpenter) and Soloman (of Soloman, of Joseph of Capt. Nathaniel Carpenter) were cousins.
Is it possible that 2 (TWO) Jeremiahs were captured by indians? Is it possible that only 1 (ONE) returned? This would help explain the age differences in the stories and what he supposedly did. Many questions still!!!

Page 41: 3. Amos (16) Carpenter was born February 1, 1754, married twice and died on March 31, 1838 in Meigs County, Ohio. He first married a Bickle (given name not known) before 1793 and, secondly, Margaret McGlaughlin on February 18,

Their descendants still live in Meigs County (created from Gallia), Ohio.

CHILDREN: Page 49 of the above book notes:
The author does not concur with many reputable Carpenter family historians on the make-up of Jeremiah and Elizabeth (Hamm) Carpenter's dozen children. Many list a Rosina Carpenter, who married John Gilpin as one of their older daughters. (Jesse is not included in the Mowrey book either) It is far more likely that this Rosina Carpenter is part of the Nicholas and Christopher Carpenter (nee, Zimmerman) lineage. (Was Jesse also a Zimmerman descendant?)
!Jeremiah's parentage has been of much debate, however the following should settle the arguement.
Although there are at least four (4) Jeremiah Carpenters reported to have been alive in VA in 1750-1800, only ONE is ever known to have been captured by the indians and held for a lengthy time. All sources agree that the Jeremiah who lived in present day Braxton County, WV served a lengthy captivity with the indians.
SEE: Historical Sketches of Alleghany County, VA, page 11, by Gay Arret.
"The indians met (William) Carpenter near his home and killed him and made prisoners of Jeremiah Carpenter, a son of the slain man, and two sons of Brown and one woman. The indians despoiled the house and taking some horses made a rapid retreat." After Jeremiah was captured he was taken to the indian village called "Old Town." which was across the Ohio River, opposite the mouth of the Great Kanawha River. He was adopted and lived there until he was eighteen years old. At that time (about 1773) he was exchanged, an action to which he was opposed.
Jeremiah served in Colonel William Fleming's Botetourt County regiment at the battle of Point Pleasant, VA during Lord Dunmore's war.
Jeremiah married Elizabeth Mann and after the American Revolution, he traveled with his wife and brother, Benjamin, to the Elk River where Centralia, Braxton County, is now. He made a clearing in the virgin forest and built his home, about one-fourth of a mile above Dry Run. His brother Benjamin soon went back to VA, returning with a wife. Ben or Benjamin built his cabin at the mouth of Holly River, four miles below Jeremiah's home.
After Benjamin and his wife were killed by indians, Jeremiah, his mother and a niece left their home and made their way up the river. On their escape, Jeremiah's son, Solomon was born near Camp Run in a cave known as "Saulie's Rock."
SEE: Calhoun County Lines and Links for Dec. 1983 which states that Jeremiah sold "a small tract of land on Elk River at the mouth of the Holly river" to Peter Coger in 1817. The same source also lists Jeremiah's wife as Elizabeth Mann.

Page 43: There weren't many Indians in the area when (grandfather) Joseph made the first settlement west of the Cowpasture River in Virginia. They were woodland Indians; Mingo and Delaware and other families of the Shawnee. The area that Joseph chose on the big bend of the Jackson River was considered part of their hunting grounds and the mineral spring some thirty-five miles away was almost a holy place. They did frequent the region on occasion for therapy for a myriad of infirmities and to hunt. No great note was made of the first few frontiersmen and settlers but as the encroachment increased they became alarmed and, agitated by both the British and the French, hostile. With the beginning of the French and Indian War, forays into the border regions of Virginia increased. Homesteads in the outlying regions were raided, cabins were burned, occupants were killed and scalped or taken prisoner for adoption into the tribe, ransom or later torture and death. The following is a traditional account of the mid-September Indian attack at Fort Carpenter on the Jackson River.

The Carpenters had a fort or at least a very strong log house that was used as a fort to protect them from the Indians when they first settled on the Jackson River. It was about 16 by 20 feet and built something like a blockhouse with a huge sleeping loft extending out over all four of the walls. Openings were left in the chinks of the gable logs and holes drilled in the floors of the overhang so the Carpenters could shoot out or down at Indians trying to burn them out. There were two small windows or openings at either end of the house that could be shuttered from the inside. A huge fireplace and chimney made out of ledge stones and mortared with clay and wood ashes was directly across from the front door. The rocks in the chimney were stepped off on one side to make a ladder to the loft. The doorway was only five foot tall so that anyone entering would have to duck their head. The door was oak, six inches thick and could be heavily barred with a log from the inside. It was sturdy as possible.
Some fifty or so Shawnee attacked the Carpenter fort when the French and Indian War started. The settlers had been warned of a possible Indian intrusion into the area and had gathered at the Carpenter cabin for mutual defense. The house had been moved to higher ground because of flooding, and there was a natural (Page 44) drainage ditch of sorts around it that had been converted into an earthworks during previous threats. Several "shebangs" had been set up in the yard to accommodate all of the people who had rallied there. Less than a dozen men manned the fortifications.
There were about twenty-five women and children in the compound. Most of the crops had been harvested and stored. Many of the more able men were out hunting to add to the food stores for winter. There had been no sign of Indians. Perhaps the defenders were too relaxed. Children were playing in the fields. Nicholas (Carpenter - relationship unknown) and his two sons, unapprised of the danger, arrived seeking someone to assist with his harvest. Indians usually attack at dawn. The night had passed uneventfully, and it was late morning. The Shawnee had used the darkness to get in as close to the cabin as they could and were lying in the surrounding forest waiting for the most opportune time to attack. There was some confusion- not panic- as the battle began. Some men met the charge at the dirt wall. Others herded everyone into the fort. The Indians came in from all directions.
The skirmish didn't last long. Those who weren't killed or captured in the initial charge could only hold their position for a few hours. The stone chimney was pulled down leaving a huge opening in the wall where the fireplace had been. Nine men were killed, scalped and their bodies mutilated. Nicholas Carpenter was among them- the only Carpenter man killed! Stephen Sewell, James Mayse, James Montgomery, Nicholas Nutt, John Byrd, George Kincaid, a man named Boyle and another named Fry were the other defenders killed. Everyone else, including Joseph (uncle) (14) Carpenter, was taken prisoner. Several children named Byrd, five children called Carpenter (including this Jeremiah) and two Persinger children were among the fifteen abducted by the Indians.
The captives were linked chain gang fashioned by ropes in four groups and forced marched the rest of that day toward the Great Kanawah that would take them west to Ohio country. Joseph (14) Carpenter supposedly escaped the second night that the group camped. He had hidden a small pen knife in his hair, managed to free himself and slip away under the cover of darkness. Some will say that he bargained for his release (he had been tried and convicted of selling guns, powder and shot to some Indians about a year previously), but by the time he got back to the scene of the slaughter and rounded up a posse of men, including some sons, it was too late to pursue the rapidly moving red men. They had more than a two day head start.
A few of these captives were eventually repatriated during Colonel Boquet's expedition into Ohio for that purpose in 1764. This Jeremiah (16) and his brother Solomon (16) Carpenter were among those so released. Most of them were never heard of again, having been adopted into the tribes as sons and replacements for fallen warriors as well as wives for the braves. Some may have been sold to other Indians (Page 45) and some were surely killed. For most, their fate remains forever unknown!

Page 45: The Carpenter family has more sagas than the Vikings- some true and some to be "taken with a grain of salt". Many of the latter described tales involve Jeremiah (This one!) during his captivity. One, out of New England, has him successfully "running the gauntlet" only to anger an Indian at the end of the line who poked out Jeremiah's eye with a deer antler. Another from the Braxton/Webster County area has him becoming too interested in a young Indian maiden named "Sutney" as a young teenager and so angering an old squaw (presumeably her mother) that she attempted to kill him by hitting him in the head with a hoe. Sutney took him down to the river, washed out his wounds and gradually nursed him back to health. Jeremiah's exact interest in her has never been revealed, but he became so enamored with her kindness and compassion that he married her after his escape. Family lore has him shooting a pursuing Indian "betwixt the eyes" across the Ohio River from Point Pleasant during his so-called escape. The Indians were so impressed with this supernatural feat that they chose not to chase him any further. One account even attributes the marksmanship to "red-haired Jesse Carpenter"- Jeremiah's younger brother, of course!
The weight of the evidence suggests that Jeremiah could not have been much more than a babe in arms when he was abducted. From 1756 until 1764 is only eight years. Surprising accomplishments indeed for an individual that young.

NAME: Last name is Hamm not Mann as reported in various genealogies.
Per Mowrey's 1997 book.
!Letter dated 25 Jan. 1998: "At any rate many descendants of my direct Ancestor, Jeremiah, son of Solomon and nephew of Thomas, has Jeremiah marrying Elizabeth Mann (supposedly a granddaughter of Moses). She was not! Her name was definately Elizabeth Hamm. I saw the orginal marriage bond in Greenbrier County, west Virginia and can not fathom how anyone could mistaken an old English script capital H for an M or three humped m's for n's. Jeremiah married Elizabeth Hamm in 1785 and his second cousin, Job Hughes, married Mary Hamm in 1791. I rather suspect that a William and Drury Hamm who can be found in the 1785 Tax Lists for Augusta County, Virginia are related to or parents of these women. It is all that I've found . . ." Paul T. Mowrey.

Elizabeth Mann (Hamm) was probably married one of the Jeremiah Carpenters in this file. Because of the pointed and well put arguements, both versions are given in this record. TWO JEREMIAHS ARE THUS SHOWN. Children common to one are shown with that one. Children common to both are shown under the Mowrey description.

BIRTH: Jeremiah was born (1755) on the Big Bend of Jackson River, Augusta Co. VA. The Portion of the Elk River Valley near the mouth of Holly River in Braxton Co. was first settled by Jeremiah and Benjamin Carpenter and a few families form Bath Co. Va. However, the settlement worked up stream, instead of down, and the Carpenter descendants were quite populous early this century in the Webster Co. towns of Erbacon and Diana.
Jeremiah Carpenter was captured about the age of nine by the Shawnee Indians. He lived with the Shawnee until he was about age 19 yrs.Married Elizabeth Mann, d/o John & Francis Elizabeth (Carpenter) Mann. Agusta Co. Court Records show that John Mann, married Damis Carpenter. Francis Carpenter Mann, was the aunt of Jeremiah Carpneter, and Elizabeth his wife his first cousin. It is often thought that perhaps Elizabeth was the Shawnee maiden that Jeremiah was said to have loved and returned to the Shawnee Village after his escape to bring back to marry. Perhaps his aunt and uncle took Elizabeth into their home to protect her from the others in the village and adopted her as their own, untill she could marry Jeremiah.
Jeremiah lived in the village of Old Town with the Shawnee, when captured was with a neighbor friend by the name of Holcomb, the Holcomb boy was killed by the Shawnee.
Benjamin & Jeremiah Carpenter were young boy growing up on the outer fringes of the frontier in Western Virginia. The indians, by then pushed west of the Blue Ridge, were nerovus about the advancing whites, and peace between the two peoples was unreliable and at times nonexist

History of Braxton Co. & Central WV, by Sutton, p. 360-364.

Jerry & Benjamin Carpenter settled on the Elk in the vicinity of the mouth of Holly early in the history of the valley. They were brothers and it is thought that they came from the Greenbrier valley. Jerry had been carried into the region beyond the Ohio by Indians when a small boy. He remained with them until man grown before returning to civilized life. He settled on what was afterwards known as the John P. Hosey farm & Benjamin, his brother, erected a cabin at the place now occupied by the little town of Palmer.

A man by the name of O'Brien blazed a trail from the Ohio by way of the Trace Fork of Steer Creek to the mouth of the Holly. It is not known at what point he settled, but he marked the way because he did not know woodcraft well enough to travel without some other guide besides what nature provided. The Carpenters having spent most of their lives in the woods could travel for days in any given direction without either a compass or marks made upon trees with an axe or hunting knife. When they could not see the sun, they traveled in the proper direction by frequent examinations of the moss on the tree trunks near the ground. White men learned from the Indians that the moss grew in the greatest profusion on the side facing the north. It appears that the Indians did not know of the Elk settlement until they found O'Brien's trail and followed it eastward. They came to the house of Benjamin Carpenter and finding his wife and small child at home both were tomahawked and scalped. The husband was down under the bank of the river graining a deer skin. He was soon found and shot at by one of the four Indians in the marauding party,but the bullet flew wide of its intended mark. Carpenter ran to the house for his gun. He reached the door and was in the act of getting his rifle from its rack above the door when he was killed by one of the party concealed in the house by a bullet from his own gun, which the Indian had obtained when the cabin was entered, Nancy, a sister of the brothers, was taken prisoner and the party soon began their homeward journey after the cabin had been set fire.

Some days before the Indians made their appearance, Jerry (Jeremiah) went to Fork Lick, for the purpose of hunting buffaloes. He killed one and jerked a quanity of the meat. Building a rude boat, using the skin for the purpose, he arrived at the mouth of Holly a short time after the redskins had left. The cabin was still burning and he was horrified to see his sister-in-law, who had been scalped and left for dead, walking in the yard in front of the burning cabin. She was tenderly taken in his strong arms and carried to the boat, but she died before the opposite bank was reached. Carpenter prepared to follow the Indinas and rescue his sister. He was joined in the pursuit by a man by the name of Hughes(Jesse Hughes), a noted frontier warrior, and another man whose name is unknown. They had no difficulty in taking up the trail and pursuing it at rapid pace. The Indians traveled with leisure because they probably thought that they would not be followed. They were overtaken on Steer Creek and completely surprised by a well planned method of attack. Carpenter had told his companions that the first act of the savages, when they were attacked, would be to kill their prisoner. The attack was stealthily made and three of the Indians fell before the unerring aim of the frontier riflemen. The fourth Indian before the reverberations of the rifle reports had died away threw a tomahawk at the captive woman, but she dodged the well-directed blow. Snatching up another tomahawk he started in pursuit of the fleeing woman, but Hughes, like an infuriated wild beast sprang after him and buried his hachet in his head before he got in any stricking distance.

The Indians were not scalped, but Carpenter cut a strip of skin about three inches wide and two feet long from the back of one of them, beginning at the base of the skull and including a tuft of hair. This strip was afterwards tanned and used by him for a razor strap. It became an heir-loom in the Carpenter family. It was in the possession of John L. Carpenter at the time of the Civil War. William Perrine carried it off, and , when he was captured by Federal soldiers that gruesome relic of the days of barbarity and savagery was taken away from him, but what disposition was made of it is not known.

When Carpenter returned home, he was informed that another party of Indians were still on the east side of the Ohio River. He took his wife and scanty supply of necessary articles with them and went up Laurel creek to the mouth of a small run. Here he found a safe retreat under a large, projecting rock. His oldest son, Solomon, was born in what is now Webster County. The stream was called Camp run and it still bears that name. It is not known when the Carpenter family was murdered but it was some years before Dunmore's war, which occurred in 1774. [Note Solomon Carpenter born, 12 Oct. 1792)

They settled in the Elk valley soon after the treaty of Fort Stanwix in western New York in 1768, which opened up the region west of the mountains to settlements.

John L. Carpenter, a son of Solomon Carpenter, Sr. married Nancy Perrine. They settled at the mouth of Missouri run where the town of Erbacon is now situated. He became the father of the following children: Dianah, Joseph, Agens, Jane, William Hamilton, Amos, Mary, Catherine and Estelline. John L. was an herb doctor of splendid ability. He compounded his own medicine from plants and roots obtained by himself in the woods. He had a good farm and was an exemplary man, a model farmer and a law-abiding citzen.

PARENTS: There is a conflict of parents (SEE BELOW). The Mowrey 1997 book has Soloman has the father of Jeremiah who was captured by indians (and returned), yet another record listed below has William as the father.
William (..... of Joseph of Capt. Nathaniel Carpenter) and Soloman (of Soloman, of Joseph of Capt. Nathaniel Carpenter) were cousins.
Is it possible that 2 (TWO) Jeremiahs were captured by indians? Is it possible that only 1 (ONE) returned? This would help explain the age differences in the stories and what he supposedly did. Many questions still!!!

Although there are at least four (4) Jeremiah Carpenters reported to have been alive in VA in 1750-1800, only ONE is ever known to have been captured by the indians and held for a lengthy time. All sources agree that the Jeremiah who lived in present day Braxton County, WV served a lengthy captivity with the indians.

SEE: Historical Sketches of Alleghany County, VA, page 11, by Gay Arret.
"The indians met (William) Carpenter near his home and killed him and made prisoners of Jeremiah Carpenter, a son of the slain man, and two sons of Brown and one woman. The indians despoiled the house and taking some horses made a rapid retreat." After Jeremiah was captured he was taken to the indian village called "Old Town." which was across the Ohio River, opposite the mouth of the Great Kanawha River. He was adopted and lived there until he was eighteen years old. At that time (about 1773) he was exchanged, an action to which he was opposed.

MILITARY:
Jeremiah served in Colonel William Fleming's Botetourt County regiment at the battle of Point Pleasant, VA during Lord Dunmore's war.
Lord Dunmore's War was a confrontation between Virginia and the American Indians of the Ohio Country in 1774. In 1768, the Iroquois and the British signed the Treaty of Fort Stanwix. In this agreement, the Iroquois gave all of their lands east and south of the Ohio River to the British.
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Lord_Dunmore%27s_War

Jeremiah married Elizabeth Mann and after the American Revolution, he traveled with his wife and brother, Benjamin, to the Elk River where Centralia, Braxton County, is now. He made a clearing in the virgin forest and built his home, about one-fourth of a mile above Dry Run. His brother Benjamin soon went back to VA, returning with a wife. Ben or Benjamin built his cabin at the mouth of Holly River, four miles below Jeremiah's home.
After Benjamin and his wife were killed by indians, Jeremiah, his mother and a niece left their home and made their way up the river. On their escape, Jeremiah's son, Solomon was born near Camp Run in a cave known as "Saulie's Rock."
SEE: Calhoun County Lines and Links for Dec. 1983 which states that Jeremiah sold "a small tract of land on Elk River at the mouth of the Holly river" to Peter Coger in 1817. The same source also lists Jeremiah's wife as Elizabeth Mann.

Scotch-Irish Chronicles. (162) Joseph Carpenter, guardian of Joseph, James and Jacob Scott, orphans of John Scott, summoned to account. 21 Nov. 1764. This is the recorded date in Augusta Co. Va. court records. I disagree with the parents listed for my Jeremiah Carpenter who married to Elizabeth Mann. His great grt. grandson stated that his great grandfather was the son of William of Botourt Co. Va. who was killed by the Indians and Jeremiah taken captive by the Shawnee indians. There is no Nicholas Carpenters in my lines, this is from I believe the Christopher Zimmerman Carpenter line who sons went to Harrison Co. WV. Nicholas Carpenter was killed while on a cattle drive to Marietta, Oh. he was from the German line of Carpenters. I have not found any researchers proof of any Joseph Solomon Carpenter, who married Sudah Hughes. Joseph C. Carpenter had two sons with these names of Joseph, Solomon I think someone forgot to read the coma between them and just put one name down. I am sure that Solomon is not the father of my Jeremiah, since Braxton Co. Histories have stated many times he is the son of William of Botetourt Co. Va. For some reason these researchers of the 1990's have changed stories around, causing some confusion on the Braxton Co. Carpenters. I will go with the printed material of early 1800 & 1900 for my sources until proven differerent.
As for Francis Elizabeth Dames/Damis there is no records of her first or second name. The only connection ever found is the court record of her named Damis wife of John Mann, now married to Joseph Carpenter. Francis Elizabeth Carpenter, d/o Joseph C. Carpenter married John Mann, their daughter, Elizabeth Mann, married to Jeremiah (my) she was his first cousin.

John R. > I have been researching the Carpenter and other West Virginia families for almost 30 years. Most of my research was done prior to internet researching, and wish I would have had a computer when I was doing all my hunting. I have to say a lot of my research was from Amos Carpenter book, and other researchers offering me their family info. My great grandmother was Emma Belle Carpenter, who married Samuel S. Burdette. My Mother is a Burdett and I started this research for her. She was always told that her 3rd. grt. grandfather, Jeremiah Carpenter was a full blooded Shawnee Indian. My grandmother told me the story many times. I wanted to find this Native American ancestor. But even tho he talked Shawnee, lived a very out door life, and appeared in many ways to be a Native American, I found he was in deed born a white man, and was captured, and lived with the Shawnee. Most of my mother's family were very early pioneers of West Virginia, including our John Boone, a nephew of Daniel Boone. I have given my information (great deal of research) on my Burdette & Boone families to others, who later put all my information on their web sites as there own work.
I love shareing information, and helping others find their families, but have been hurt by those who take the information,and do not give credit to those who have done all the work. In my Carpenter info. I also give credit to Charles A. Carpenter, (who got it from you I think) who done the research on the Carpenter family prior to Our John of 1303. This is his research not mine. I do not know if John L., told you but we have a disagreement on Solomon Joseph Carpenter, I have never found any reference to a Solomon Joseph as son of Joseph Coles Carpenter Sr. and said to be the father of my Jeremiah, b.ca. 1755 who married to Elizabeth Mann, d/o John Mann Sr. & Francis Elizabeth Carpenter, d/o Joseph Coles Carpenter, Sr. Jeremiah married his first cousin. Many of the Carpenter's married first and second cousins. Joseph Coles Carpenter had a son named Solomon and one named Joseph Jr. Think someone has just not put a coma between the two boys names. I am always open to any proof of this Solomon Joseph as a son of Joseph Sr. But so far have found none.
If you just want my line of Carpenters, from Jeremiah down to present time, then please list him as the son of William & unknown wife, of Botourt Co. Va. Killed by the Indians (Mingo & Delaware Indians) Jeremiah was captured along with a neighbor boy, called Holcomb, do not know his first name. The Holcomb boy was killed by the Shawnee. Jeremiah's great grandson has told the story of his family in the Braxton Co. books. And said his Jeremiah was the son of William of Jackson River, Va. Donna.

>John R. -- Sorry I left you off of the list of people who received this, I thought you were on it. Donna Carpenter-Johnson pointed out that you were missing, so I've added you to the list that John L. had sent out. So you won't be missing anything, here's the original message. I've already gotten one flaming response, but as far as I can tell after reading it once, there is no legitimate challenge to the facts in this e-mail. I will respond to the second group message sent out by John L., then the responses I get from them. I've been spending a lot of time checking my sources and putting references into the text and am ready to try another round of discussion on what's proven and what's not on this family. Terry.

NAME: Last name is Hamm not Mann as reported in various genealogies.
Per Mowrey's 1997 book.
!Letter dated 25 Jan. 1998: "At any rate many descendants of my direct Ancestor, Jeremiah, son of Solomon and nephew of Thomas, has Jeremiah marrying Elizabeth Mann (supposedly a granddaughter of Moses). She was not! Her name was definately Elizabeth Hamm. I saw the orginal marriage bond in Greenbrier County, west Virginia and can not fathom how anyone could mistaken an old English script capital H for an M or three humped m's for n's. Jeremiah married Elizabeth Hamm in 1785 and his second cousin, Job Hughes, married Mary Hamm in 1791. I rather suspect that a William and Drury Hamm who can be found in the 1785 Tax Lists for Augusta County, Virginia are related to or parents of these women. It is all that I've found . . ." Paul T. Mowrey.

Elizabeth Mann (Hamm) was probably married one of the Jeremiah Carpenters in this file. Because of the pointed and well put arguements, both versions are given in this record. TWO JEREMIAHS ARE THUS SHOWN. Children common to one are shown with that one. Children common to both are shown under the Mowrey description.

BIRTH: Jeremiah was born (1755) on the Big Bend of Jackson River, Augusta Co. VA. The Portion of the Elk River Valley near the mouth of Holly River in Braxton Co. was first settled by Jeremiah and Benjamin Carpenter and a few families form Bath Co. Va. However, the settlement worked up stream, instead of down, and the Carpenter descendants were quite populous early this century in the Webster Co. towns of Erbacon and Diana.
Jeremiah Carpenter was captured about the age of nine by the Shawnee Indians. He lived with the Shawnee until he was about age 19 yrs.Married Elizabeth Mann, d/o John & Francis Elizabeth (Carpenter) Mann. Agusta Co. Court Records show that John Mann, married Damis Carpenter. Francis Carpenter Mann, was the aunt of Jeremiah Carpneter, and Elizabeth his wife his first cousin. It is often thought that perhaps Elizabeth was the Shawnee maiden that Jeremiah was said to have loved and returned to the Shawnee Village after his escape to bring back to marry. Perhaps his aunt and uncle took Elizabeth into their home to protect her from the others in the village and adopted her as their own, untill she could marry Jeremiah.
Jeremiah lived in the village of Old Town with the Shawnee, when captured was with a neighbor friend by the name of Holcomb, the Holcomb boy was killed by the Shawnee.
Benjamin & Jeremiah Carpenter were young boy growing up on the outer fringes of the frontier in Western Virginia. The indians, by then pushed west of the Blue Ridge, were nerovus about the advancing whites, and peace between the two peoples was unreliable and at times nonexist
Jeremiah and Elizabeth Mann Carpenter both buried in the Skidmore Bottom near the Juncture of Holly and Elk Rivers.
Other sources say he is buried at Union Mills, Braxton Co. WV. The first white settler in the county"; lived Braxton, captured by Indians age 9-18; settled on Elk River near the mouth of Holly, settled Skidmore Bottom, bef. ca. 1792.
History of Braxton Co. & Central WV, by Sutton, p. 360-364.
Jerry & Benjamin Carpenter settled on the Elk in the vicinity of the mouth of Holly early in the history of the valley. They were brothers and it is thought that they came from the Greenbrier valley. Jerry had been carried into the region beyond the Ohio by Indians when a small boy. He remained with them until man grown before returning to civilized life. He settled on what was afterwards known as the John P. Hosey farm &

Benjamin, his brother, erected a cabin at the place now occupied by the little town of Palmer.

A man by the name of O'Brien blazed a trail from the Ohio by way of the Trace Fork of Steer Creek to the mouth of the Holly. It is not known at what point he settled, but he marked the way because he did not know woodcraft well enough to travel without some other guide besides what nature provided. The Carpenters having spent most of their lives in the woods could travel for days in any given direction without either a compass or marks made upon trees with an axe or hunting knife. When they could not see the sun, they traveled in the proper direction by frequent examinations of the moss on the tree trunks near the ground. White men learned from the Indians that the moss grew in the greatest profusion on the side facing the north. It appears that the Indians did not know of the Elk settlement until they found O'Brien's trail and followed it eastward. They came to the house of Benjamin Carpenter and finding his wife and small child at home both were tomahawked and scalped. The husband was down under the bank of the river graining a deer skin. He was soon found and shot at by one of the four Indians in the marauding party,but the bullet flew wide of its intended mark. Carpenter ran to the house for his gun. He reached the door and was in the act of getting his rifle from its rack above the door when he was killed by one of the party concealed in the house by a bullet from his own gun, which the Indian had obtained when the cabin was entered, Nancy, a sister of the brothers, was taken prisoner and the party soon began their homeward journey after the cabin had been set fire.

Some days before the Indians made their appearance, Jerry (Jeremiah) went to Fork Lick, for the purpose of hunting buffaloes. He killed one and jerked a quanity of the meat. Building a rude boat, using the skin for the purpose, he arrived at the mouth of Holly a short time after the redskins had left. The cabin was still burning and he was horrified to see his sister-in-law, who had been scalped and left for dead, walking in the yard in front of the burning cabin. She was tenderly taken in his strong arms and carried to the boat, but she died before the opposite bank was reached. Carpenter prepared to follow the Indinas and rescue his sister. He was joined in the pursuit by a man by the name of Hughes(Jesse Hughes), a noted frontier warrior, and another man whose name is unknown. They had no difficulty in taking up the trail and pursuing it at rapid pace. The Indians traveled with leisure because they probably thought that they would not be followed. They were overtaken on Steer Creek and completely surprised by a well planned method of attack. Carpenter had told his companions that the first act of the savages, when they were attacked, would be to kill their prisoner. The attack was stealthily made and three of the Indians fell before the unerring aim of the frontier riflemen. The fourth Indian before the reverberations of the rifle reports had died away threw a tomahawk at the captive woman, but she dodged the well-directed blow. Snatching up another tomahawk he started in pursuit of the fleeing woman, but Hughes, like an infuriated wild beast sprang after him and buried his hachet in his head before he got in any stricking distance.

The Indians were not scalped, but Carpenter cut a strip of skin about three inches wide and two feet long from the back of one of them, beginning at the base of the skull and including a tuft of hair. This strip was afterwards tanned and used by him for a razor strap. It became an heir-loom in the Carpenter family. It was in the possession of John L. Carpenter at the time of the Civil War. William Perrine carried it off, and , when he was captured by Federal soldiers that gruesome relic of the days of barbarity and savagery was taken away from him, but what disposition was made of it is not known.

When Carpenter returned home, he was informed that another party of Indians were still on the east side of the Ohio River. He took his wife and scanty supply of necessary articles with them and went up Laurel creek to the mouth of a small run. Here he found a safe retreat under a large, projecting rock. His oldest son, Solomon, was born in what is now Webster County. The stream was called Camp run and it still bears that name. It is not known when the Carpenter family was murdered but it was some years before Dunmore's war, which occurred in 1774. [Note Solomon Carpenter born, 12 Oct. 1792)

They settled in the Elk valley soon after the treaty of Fort Stanwix in western New York in 1768, which opened up the region west of the mountains to settlements.

John L. Carpenter, a son of Solomon Carpenter, Sr. married Nancy Perrine. They settled at the mouth of Missouri run where the town of Erbacon is now situated. He became the father of the following children: Dianah, Joseph, Agens, Jane, William Hamilton, Amos, Mary, Catherine and Estelline. John L. was an herb doctor of splendid ability. He compounded his own medicine from plants and roots obtained by himself in the woods. He had a good farm and was an exemplary man, a model farmer and a law-abiding citzen.

By deed dated 29 February 1856 recorded in Braxton County, (West) Virginia, in Deed Book 7, page 35, Joseph Carpenter conveyed to John P. Hosey the undivided twelfth interest that had been conveyed to him by Resina Gilpin, formerly Resina Carpenter and her husband John. She was identified as "another of the children of Jeremiah Carpenter, deceased."
Resina Gilpin, at the age of 66, testified on behalf of the widow of Amos Carpenter, Margaret (McGlaughlin) Carpenter on 9 December 1853 in Meigs County, Ohio, when Margaret applied for a widow's Revolutionary War pension. Resina and Amos would have been siblings.
According to estate documents in Meigs County, Ohio, Resina Forrest and Samuel Downing were appointed administrators of the estate of John Forrest, deceased, on April 8, 1830. Jeremiah Carpenter gave a receipt dated August 9, 1831 to Resina Cooper for an appraisal fee. The final report of the administrators was made by Resina Cooper, late Resina Forrest, and Samuel Downing. Thus Resina's marriage to Cooper occurred sometime between April 8, 1830 and August 9, 1831. Her marriage to John Gilpin would have occurred thereafter, but before 9 December 1853.
Resina is generally believed to be the same person as "Liddy," the daughter of Jeremiah Carpenter who married John Forrest on 5 January 1806 in Randolph County, (West) Virginia.

Jan, Sally,
The short answer is that Lydia â€˜Liddie"â€™Carpenter daughter of Jeremiah and Elizabeth Hamm was born sometime about 1787 to 1790 in VA. She married John Forrest (Forest). She later married a Cooper then supposedly a Gilpin.
-Reply: So does this mean, yes, my Lydia/Rosina is the daughter of Jeremiah CARPENTER and Elizabeth HAMM?
This Carpenter line went to VA from Long Island, NY and can be generally traced back to William Carpenter b. abt 1610 in England who came to America about 1635 and who settled in Providence, RI.
Rosina (RESINA) Carpenter, who married John Gilpin is listed as one of their older daughters of Jeremiah. It is far more likely that this Rosina Carpenter is part of the Nicholas and Christopher Carpenter (nee, Zimmerman) lineage.
See also "A Carpenter Genealogy" by Lyle Sharp and Frances Stoner, 1996 which documents the Zimmerman-Carpenter Family of VA and the South. She also married a Forrest then John Gilpin.
-Reply: Does this mean that my Lydia/Rosina is not the daughter of Jeremiah CARPENTER and Elizabeth

HAMM?
Part of the confusion is that there was several John Forrests who likely were related who married Carpenters â€“ who were from at least 3 different Carpenter groups. 1) The Rhode Island to Long Island to Virginia group. 2) The Zimmermans who became Carpenters. I believe these are descendants of Dr. Henry Zimmerman of PA-Germans 3) An unknown Carpenter line only identified by Y-DNA. This line may have been from an adoption, but it is still undecided. Some have speculated that it is Quaker descendants of Samuel Carpenter of Philadelphia, PA.
An example of some email in the past that refers to her ...

-Reply: Rosina Forrest, widow of John Forrest (died 19 Dec 1829, Meigs Co., OH) married subsequently Leonard COOPER (m 10 Feb 1831 -- I have the record), and John GILPIN (m 04 Jul 1843).
She was identified as "another of the children of Jeremiah Carpenter, deceased."
Resina Gilpin, at the age of 66, testified on behalf of the widow of Amos Carpenter, Margaret (McGlaughlin) Carpenter on 9 December 1853 in Meigs County, Ohio, when Margaret applied for a widow's Revolutionary War pension. Resina and Amos would have been siblings.
-Reply: Amos CARPENTER was a veteran of the Revolutionary War, and a brother to Jeremiah, father of Lydia/Rosina, therefore Amos was her uncle.
According to estate documents in Meigs County, Ohio, Resina Forrest and Samuel Downing were appointed administrators of the estate of John Forrest, deceased, on April 8, 1830. -Reply: Leonard COOPER married Lydia/Rosina 10 Feb 1831, and proceeded to dispose of the property of John FORREST for his own profit. There was a court case against him by the guardian of John (and Lydia's) minor children, of which I have a typed copy -- not the original.
Her marriage to John Gilpin would have occurred thereafter, but before 9 December 1853.
-Reply: Rosina m John Gilpin 04 July 1843, supposedly. I cannot find the record.
Resina is generally believed to be the same person as "Liddy," the daughter of Jeremiah Carpenter who married John Forrest on 5 January 1806 in Randolph County, (West) Virginia.
-Reply: This is why I conjecture that Lydia ("Liddy instead of "Libby" -- Elizabeth? who was not yet born) could possibly be the child Benjamin's mother hid in the hollow stump and covered with a big rock while she went to fetch Jeremiah to help during the massacre by the two Indians. Lydia would have been about three years old at the time of the massacre (although that date is given variously!)

Hi John,
The 1796 marriage record for Jesse Carpenter names his bride as Jenny Rife, and there is no record identifying her as Sarah Jane even though many internet trees state that. Her surname was not Wright -- the Rev. John Alderson, who married them, was a literate man, and he spelled Wright correctly in his list of marriages that he performed. Rife was later spelled Riffe -- it was pronounced "riffy" not "ryte."
The Jesse Carpenter who married in 1814 to Margaret Cottrell did not marry in 1796 to Jenny Wright -- he would have been only 11 years old at that time.
Both Jesses were too young to have served in the Revolutionary War. There are 4 Jesse Carpenters with War of 1812 service in Virginia or Ohio. One was the Jesse Carpenter born c1785 who married Margaret, the other three were from other places in Virginia.
The Van Ripper family tree information about the Carpenters is chock full of errors, for example, listing Amos Carpenter who was born 14 Feb 1754 in VA as born in "Lebanon, New London, Connecticut, USA." They cite two references, (1) U.S. and International Marriage Records, 1560-1900 which are in large part unverified user-contributed say-so information that cannot be accepted at face value; and (2) unverified user-contributed Ancestry Family Trees that are no longer available -- and probably just as well because they most likely cited other Ancestry Family Trees none of which were based on original sources. The many obvious errors make it clear that they have been indiscriminately copying and conflating others' work.

He served in the War of 1812 and received a pension (later revoked) for service in the Revolutionary War under a Captain Trunk. Some researchers believe (page 42) that Jesse was twice married and that Sarah Jane was his second wife. Jenny Rite (Wright?) was supposedly his first wife. Jesse's marriage is yet to be found on any original list by John Alderson, the widely travelled itinerant minister who supposedly celebrated the rites of matrimony (Other Carpenter marriages are). Old English script sometimes seems to defy deciphering and transliterations are very common. Perhaps this is a "second hand reading". "Jenny" is the usual nickname for Jane. People are often found with first, middle or nickname in different censuses. Any legitimate proof of either marriage, particularly a second one, would quickly eliminate the controversy.

MISC: Some good and some screwed up info follows.
Walter T., b. 1811 at Duanesburg, son of Isaac, b. 1779 and Mercy, son of Abraham, Born on the 1st of January 1811, at Duanesburg, near Albany, New York, he is a son of Isaac and Mercy (Frost) Carpenter. The family is of Welsh lineage and the ancestry can be traced back in direct line to Ezra Carpenter, who was born in Wilkshire, Wales, in 1570, and had two sons, Richard and William. The latter never married, and died in 1701, leaving an estate estimated at three million pounds sterling. Richard Carpenter had two sons, Ephraim and Timothy, who immigrated to the United States in 1678, and located in Hempstead, Long Island. The latter was born December 19, 1665, and had three sons, John, Runyan and Timothy. The first named, John Carpenter, of Oyster Bay, was born June 13, 1690, and had two sons, John and Abel. The former was born January 7, 1714, was a hatter by trade, and in 1736 removed to New Castle, Westchester County, New York.
Of his three sons, Abraham became the grandfather of our subject. He was born in Westchester County, December 27, 1728, and spent his entire life there, carrying on agricultural pursuits. He married Lydia Potter and had a family of ten children, including Isaac Carpenter the father of Richmond's well known citizen. He was born in Westchester County, New York, in 1779, and after his marriage to Mercy Frost removed to Duanesburg, that state, where he lived for ten years. In 1815 he became a resident of Clinton County, Ohio

Subject: carpenter research
Dear John,
I am rather new at geneological research, and I have come across your name several times in looking at message boards, etc. I am hoping you can help me.

My great grandfather was Alfred Madison Carpenter. I have info that he married Maria Schoonover in Benton Co. Iowa in 1871, and that my grandfather was born there in 1874. According to family story, they came to Kansas in a covered wagon when my grandfather was only a few years old.

Do you happen to have any information on who the parents of Alfred Madison Carpenter might be? I am stuck at this particular point in my research and hope you can point me in the right direction. Any help you have to offer will be greatly appreciated.

Thank you,
Bonnie Pugh Kershaw

Notes

2587. Rev. William Purdy Carpenter

Number 284-4 in TIMOTHY CARPENTER DESCENDANTS.
William carried the title of Reverend. The compiler (of the T.C. book) and his mother were in a rowboat on Chautauqua Lake one summer when the family had a cottage at Lakeview. On that day, William came calling and decided he would like to go out on the lake with us. As we oared along, he told of being a lad out on the lake in a boat and having a fish jump into his boat. No sooner had he told of that incident than a flying fish flew right into our boat and the compiler almost capsized the boat in his endeavor to get that fish in his hands. This is a true fish story.
William's sister Lucy recorded in her Bible that William was born in 1833. One old record lists son William S. as Walter L. and daughter Rosalie as Rosalie D.
A separate record lists Clinton as Clinton E.
Gravestones were in good condition in 1965.

2588. Francis W. Carpenter

Number 285-4 in TIMOTHY CARPENTER DESCENDANTS.
See image: RIN 11412 Fracis Carpenter pic.jpg

FRANCIS, the compiler's grandfather, was a farmer most of his life. In later years, he operated a small general store at Blockville~ The road leading from the main road to his home, where the store was located, was made a township road at the time. This had been forgotten for years until a granddaughter, MYRA (1155), who purchased the old homestead, rediscovered it was a town road. She and husband, ERNEST TAYLOR, restored the old house. Evidently, FRANCIS and his family followed members of his wife's family in moving westward to homestead in Minnesota. The exact date is not known, but the compiler has the original homestead deed which is signed in two places by PRESIDENT U.S. GRANT. The deed certificate #7474 was issued Feb.1,1872 and recorded in Faribault Co. Nov. 28, 1872 in Book 2, Pg. 182. It reads as follows: Whereas, FRANCIS W. CARPENTER of Faribault County, Minnesota has deposited in the GENERAL LAND OFFICE of the United States a Certificate of the Register of the Land Office at Jackson, Minnesota whereby it appears FULL PAYMENT has been made by the said FRANCIS W.

CARPENTER according to the provisions of the Act of Congress of the 24th of April, 1820, entitled "An Act making further provision for the sale of Public Lands", for the North East quarter of the South East quarter of Section ten, in Township one hundred and two, of Range twenty-seven, in the district of lands subject to sale at Jackson, Minnesota, containing forty acres according to the official Plat of the Survey of the said lands, returned to the GENERAL LAND OFFICE by the Surveyor General, which said tract has been purchased by the said FRANCIS W. CARPENTER...
Daughter MINA told the compiler her parents gave up homesteading and returned to the Blockville, N.Y. area because of her father's health.
Some old records give FRANCIS' birth as 1835, as does his sister LUCY'S diary. The 1836 date, tied in with another record, and because of a leap year, is given here. FRANCIS' will dated Feb.8, 1908 (Vol.16, Pg.218, courthouse, Mayville) names his son TIMOTHY as executor. Witnesses were G.H. BURLEY and WILLIAM WALBURG. Extended litigation ensued prior to final probate of the will.
VICTORIA was a daughter of GEORGE R. NELSON. Her mother's surname was most probably WAKEFIELD. Records of the compiler indicate GEORGE'S proper name was RIDDLER; another record indicates that a RIDDLER was a step-father. VICTORIA reportedly was an expert pistol shot, which was occasioned by the Indian troubles while they resided in Minnesota. Her brace of pistols was last known to be in the possession of JOHN (705). Two sisters and a brother were living when she died: Mrs. MARY OTHOUGHT, Mrs. SARAH FOSS and ALBERT NELSON. The FOSS family became renowned in the Midwest, particularly in the Minnesota area. The last known address of SARAH was: Mrs. C.J. LUSK (formerly Mrs. ROPER), 507~ S. Second St., Mankato, Minn. CHARLES CLARK, VICTORIA'S second spouse, was a Civil War veteran, having served in Company "H", 185th N.Y. He reminisced with the compiler about his war experiences and told of being taken prisoner and confined in one of the infamous Confederate prison camps. The former spouse of CHARLES CLARK recelved his Civil War pension through Sept.4, 1918; she was represented by Attorney ARTHUR B. MANN of Coudersport, Pa.
Present at VICTORIA'S passing were sons FRANK and CHARLES and daughters ADDIE and ANNIE, plus FRANK'S spouse, JEANETTE. Gravestones were inspected in 1974--some were in excellent, some in good and some in fair condition. As you enter the cemetery, the plot is on the left side down near the left hedge row.
FRANCIS' funeral services were held under the auspices of the Methodist Church, Blockville.

THE CHILDREN OF WILLIAM AND JULIA ANN CARPENTER: Harriet, b.1849; Charles, b.1850; Frank and Emma, b.1853; Henry, b.1854; probably, George and Ida Agnes born between Henry and Edward b.1859. E-MAIL: Sat, 20 Nov 1999 From: "bonbon"
Dear John:
#3-William Carpenter and Julia Ann Foote (CORRECT AS FOLLOWS):
William Carpenter (Per Obitury, Marriage and Death Record): Born 13 Mar 1824 in Wales, Erie Co., NY, Died 18 May 1905 in Charlotte, Eaton Co., MI. and married Julia Ann Foote on 15 Dec 1847 in Charlotte, Eaton Co., MI (Michigan not MO), and she was born on 2 Jun 1830 in Montpelier, Washington, VT and died 25 Mar 1896/8 in Marion, Marion Co., Kansas.
The above William Carpenter was married first to Julia Ann Foote and later was married to Theresa May Spencer Satterlee. She also had been married before. He was living in Carmel Township, Eaton Co., Michigan.
#1-William Carpenter and Polly Cobb (Per Death Record and Marriage Record); not John Carpenter.
If and when I get proof of the Carpenter connection, I will advise. If you have any bright ideas or have additional proof, please advise.
Thanks for communicating with me.
Bonnie Huser in California.
Additional data from Bonnie:
4) William Carpenter, b. abt. 1823, m. Julia Ann Foote, on 15 Dec. 1847, Charlotte, Eaton Co., Michigan. On marriage certificate he states he was 24 years old. My Uncle told me that his grandfather (William Carpenter) died in 1905 or 1906 in Charlotte, Michigan. I did locate a "State of Michigan Record of Death" which listed a William Carpenter, who died on 18 May 1905, he was 81 years, 2 months and 5 days (this is about 13 March 1824), he died in Charlotte. It states he was born in New York, he was a farmer, his parents names were William and Polly Carpenter. He and Julia Ann Foote were divorced in 1885, I believe.
I found the family together on the Michigan Census for 1880, 1870, and 1860 living in Charlotte, Michigan. I found a 1855 Erie County, New York Census stating William was 31 years old and born in Erie Co., Wales, New York, and was a Farmer. The Census looks as follows:
1855 Erie County, New York Census: WILLIAM CARPENTER

William	31 M, b. Erie, Farmer, Wales
Julia, wife	23 F, b. VT.
Harriet, child	6 F, b. Michigan
Charles, child	5 M, b. Michigan
Frank, child	2 M, b. Erie
Emma, child	2 F, b. Erie
Henry, child	4 mo. M, b. Erie
Alexander	25 M, b. Erie, Workman

I wonder who the Alexander is? As you will note, this William moved from Charlotte, Michigan to Erie, NY, after his first two children were born. He was married in Charlotte, Michigan. Then the next three children were born in Erie Co., New York.
Apparently, they moved back to Charlotte, Michigan, as I found him on the census from 1860 thru 1880 with his family. I also found him in 1900

Michigan Census in Charlotte and that is where he died so apparently he stayed there.
The fact that he and Julia Ann Foote were divorced, it has been a nightmare to try to get this pieced together.
more:
You have researched the same books I have. It looks to me as though you have in your data bank the Charles L. Carpenter data. I too own CLC's book on Timothy Carpenter. That is where I got my data. In corresponding with him (CLC) we decided that this William was my William (son of John and Sally). That is, until I ordered the will you referred to. They are not the same people. John Carpenter's William is 10 years younger than my great grandfather William. (According to the marriage license of Julia Ann and William Carpenter; according to all the census records I own; and, now the fact that I located the death record, I am sure the William Carpenter of Charlotte is my great grandfather William Carpenter and he was born in 1823.)

We have a death record from MI for William (b 1824 in Wales (Marilla) Erie, NY- d. 1905) that gives his father's name as William. We are also fortunate enough to have found a 2nd marriage record for William (1824). He and his wife, Julia Ann Foote separated and lived apart for many years. She with her sons in Kansas. When Julia Ann died in KS in 1899, William remarried 4 months later in MI to a woman almost half his age. On this record he gives his father and mother's names as William Carpenter (1791- c1827) and Polly (Mary) Cobb. William and Mary Cobb Carpenter's children are William and his brother, Carr. We have deed records and other records giving us Mary Cobb Carpenter's 2nd husband's name and the girls she had by him--the half sisters to William and Carr. We do not know if William (1791) died in NY or in MI. The family traveled back and forth a number of times.
Daniel H. Carpenter gives William (1791-c1827) as the son of Jeremiah Carpenter (1760-1840). I did work with The Admiral, Charles Lorain Carpenter, through letters and research in the 1970s when he began his research.
Please note: William R. Carpenter (c1793-1868) is not the son of Jeremiah Carpenter. CLC had that one wrong. CLC also does not have the correct children in other cases for Jeremiah. The census records show that Jeremiah had 4 sons. They are: Jeremiah, Jr., Joseph, William and George Washington. Listed as sons of Jeremiah in CLC's book that are incorrect are: John Copeland, who is a son of George Washington Carpenter; Niles, who is a son of Jeremiah, Jr.; and there is no John, or perhaps the John from John Copeland was thought to be a separate person. At present, I am in contact with descendants of Joseph and George Washington Carpenter.
Carol

GENERAL GEORGE W. CARPENTER, whose portrait appears on another page, is an old settler of South Dakota, and a well-known and prosperous citizen of Watertown, South Dakota. He was born in Erie county, New York, July 26, 1833.
Mr. Carpenter's father, George W. Carpenter, was born in Pompey, near Syracuse, New York, in the year 1800, and moved with his parents to Erie county, New York, when about ten years of age. His father, Jeremiah Carpenter, was a native of New York, and a soldier in both the Revolutionary war and the War of 1812. He is a descendant of one of three brothers who came from Germany in an early day and located on Long Island, their names then being "Zimmerman," the German word for "carpenter." Our subject's mother, Anna Foot, was a native of New York. Her father, who was of French descent, died when she was quite small.
Mr. Carpenter is the seventh child in the order of birth of a family of ten children, nine of whom grew to maturity, and one died at the age of ten years. He was reared in his native county and educated in the public schools of his district. February 13, 1858, he was united in marriage to Miss Ermina E. Watson. Mrs. Carpenter was born in Darien, Genesee county, New York, March 1 7, 1 840, the daughter and only child of Milton and Marilla Watson, natives of Massachusetts and Vermont, respectively. After his marriage, Mr. Carpenter located in the village of Marilla, a town named in honor of his wife's mother, and there engaged in business until 1 86 1, when he enlisted in Company C, Twenty-first New York Volunteer Infantry, as a private for three months, and served about six months. On his return, he was given a permit by the government to recruit for the One Hundred and Sixteenth New York Volunteer Infantry, and was appointed first lieutenant of Company I of the regiment. When he went out, in October of the same year, he was appointed captain of Company I. In December, 1864, he was appointed major of the One Hundred and Sixteenth Regiment, and served in that capacity until the close of the war in 1865. Mr. Carpenter participated in the following principal battles: The first battle of Bull Run; the siege of Port Hudson; Coxie's Plantation, or Donaldsonville, where he was slightly wounded; Winchester, Virginia, Fisher's Hill, Cedar Creek, where he was again wounded in the leg by a shell, and was taken to Winchester about thirty days, and was then sent home on a furlough for sixty days, and later went to the hospital at Annapolis, Maryland. He again joined the regiment in March, 1865, and was ordered to Washington on guard duty, and was there at the time of the assassination of President Lincon. He was on provost duty at the Grand Review, and was field officer of the day during the second day of that celebration. He was mustered out at Buffalo, New York, July 8, 1865.

After the close of hostilities, Mr. Carpenter went west and located in Fillmore county, Minnesota, in July, 1865, and there engaged in farming until 1878. During that time he served the citizens of the county in the capacity of justice of the peace, dividing his time between the duties of that office and his farm interests. He made a specialty of hop raising, and in 1871 shipped nine car loads of hops, valued at $12,000, to Chicago, and they were all burned in the fire of that year. In 1 878 he moved to Codington county, South Dakota, and located on a farm two and a half miles south of what is now Watertown, being one of the first to locate in the county. Soon after he was elected surveyor of the county, and helped to lay out the town of Watertown and several other towns in the state, and did surveying on government land. He is now surveyor of three counties, Codington, Hamlin and Deuel, and at one time was surveyor of Clark county. He also surveyed the Great Northern railroad, being thus engaged three years, and was chief engineer of the Duluth, Watertown & Pacific railroad, which was surveyed from the northern line of the state to Watertown. He has been connected with the state militia for ten years, and held the office of quartermaster general of South Dakota, until 1897. He was department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic during the year 1894; has been connected with that body since 1868; is now a member of the National Encampment, and is also a prominent Mason.
Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter are the parents of eleven children, of whom we have the following record: Eva E., wife of George R. Williams, of Watertown; Kattie M., wife of Elmer McDowell, of Watertown; Osceola, at home; Capitola, a teacher; Edna M., now attending school; J. C., the youngest, now attending school; Libbie and Lillie, twins, both deceased; George W., deceased; Glezen F., deceased; and Estella, deceased.

NOTE: #289-4 in the T. Carpenter book.
The first saw mill built at Marilla Village by the GATES brothers passed to a JAMES CLARK then to this JOHN CARPENTER. Later, it was converted to a cheese factory. JOHN built a grist mill in 1858 in company with H.T. FOSTER and FRANK CHESBRO. After several owners, the mill burned. JOHN was mentioned in his father's will, dated May 26, 1882, as of then being of Marilla. He and his brother LEWIS were named executors. Gravestones were in good condition in 1974.

Number 96-3 in the Timothy Carpenter book.

Sarah E. Carpenter Slocum is recorded in the above referenced 1850 US Veteran, Chemung, NY Census; the 1860 US Veteran, Chemung, NY Census records her as a domestic with the David R. Tift family; in the 1870 US Veteran, Chemung, NY Census she is a domestic with the James Vanduser family; the 1880 Big Flats Census referenced above records Sarah as the (2nd) wife of Daniel Slocum and mother of Mary A and Julia M. Slocum - Mary Carpenter is recorded as Daniel's mother-in-law; in the 1892 NY Census for Big Flats, Chemung, NY, Sarah and Daniel are recorded living together. I find no further reference to Daniel or Sarah, however she is buried in Watkins Glen, NY (Greenwood Cemetery) in the same plot as Della L (Lattin) Carter and Elnora L. (Lattin) Kenyon and next to the plot of the George E. Lattin family (G. Lyman Lattin, George Edward Lattin and Sarah's daughter - Mary A. Slocum Lattin).

Mary A. Slocum Lattin's 1949 obituary states that she "was born at Big Flats on Feb. 10, 1871, her parents being Daniel and Sarah Slocum."

A delicious dinner was served at their home at noon, those present being their two daughters, Misses Fanny H. And Aimee Carpenter, who reside at home; their son, B. F. Carpenter, of this city; Mr. Carpenter's sister, Mrs. Catherine Miller, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Margaret Carpenter, both of Horseheads; also Mr. & Mrs. Charles Gaul and Miss Louise Trost. One son, Grant S. Carpenter, died in 1911, and another son, Frederick Carpenter, of Toledo, Ohio, was unable to be present. The table decorations were prettily carried out in gold and white. The centerpiece was an elaborate pyramid cake. Mr. And Mrs. Carpenter were the recipients of several gold pieces. Mr. Carpenter is a prosperous farmer of Veteran for 35 years. Mrs. Carpenter before her marriage was Miss Matilda Cornish of Spencer, N.Y. Their friends hope they may enjoy many more anniversaries

History of Chenango and Madison counties (NY) - Chapter XX - Town of Guilford.
About 1847 or '8, William Gregory, a native of the place, commenced trading here. He sold to William Green, also a native of the town, who sold to William Carpenter, a native of the county. The business passed successively from the hands of Carpenter to those of his brother Chester, James Russell Brett, Charles E. Brett, brother of James R., Dr. Benjamin F. Smith, Lyman D. Ives and Alexis H. Wheeler, the latter of whom, a native of the town, still carries on the business of drugs, groceries, boots and shoes, which he commenced in March, 1872.

Lewis E. Carpenter.

LEWIS E. CARPENTER, is one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of the town of North Norwich, and has devoted many years of his life to public service. His work as a public servant began while he was yet a young man, and has continued to the present time, when he is an active and efficient as formerly. In 1849 he was elected justice of the peace of North Norwich, and has held the position continuously ever since. About the same time he was appointed postmaster, under the administration of Zachary Taylor and has held the office through every Republican administration since. During the '60s he served for three terms as Justice of the Sessions, occupying the bench with Judge Balcom and Judge Clark of Oxford. Then he has filled innumerable minor offices, was for five years supervisor of the town, president of the board of health, etc. he possessed a mind of rare analytical power, his judgment was discriminating and sound, in the court room his learning and impartiality commanded respect, while his own dignified deportment inspired decorum in others. His ancestors were among the pioneers of Chenango County and here he was born in the town of Preston, March 31, 1820. His parents were Noah and Judith (Wait) Carpenter.

Noah Carpenter was a son of Noah Carpenter, Sr. and lived in the town of Preston where he owned a farm and owned and operated a cloth mill in the village. He was a clothier and made home-spun and other carded material. He was an industrious, hard working citizen, and a credit to the community in which he lived. He had been a Democrat, but at last became dissatisfied with their policy and joined forces with the Republicans. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity. A short time before his death, which took place when ha ehad reached the rope old age of eighty-four, he had taken up his residence in the village of North Norwich. He was united in marriage with Judith Wait and raised a family of nine children, two daughters and seven sons, whose names ere: Nelson; Submit; Andrew; Electa; Ralph; Lewis E. Franklin; Chester W. and William.

Lewis E. Carpenter was thrown on his own resources at an early age in life and developed an independence of character and a fearlessness of criticism, which, combined with his love of truth and honorable dealings, soon won for him the admiration and esteem of the entire community. His education was received in the public schools until he was seventeen years old, when he had to leave the school room to earn his living. His first work was obtained on a farm where he staid(this is the spelling in the book) until he was twenty-one, when he went to work with a carpenter and joiner. Being naturally quick, he soon became proficient at this trade and followed for twenty years. When he was twenty-four he went to Michigan and plied his craft for one and one-half years, and then came back to north Norwich, where he has since lived and worked, and where many evidences of his skill are discernible. Twelve years were spent in catering to the public taste, when he was the popular and entertaining landlord of the Carpenter House of North Norwich. At the same time he was carrying on his farm, and was extensively engaged in lumbering, owning and operating a grist and saw-mill. His farm consists of 60 acres, lying near the village of North Norwich and is still owned and cultivated by him.

Mr. Carpenter was married October 31, 1841, when he was little past twenty-one years of age to Laura Baker, and no doubt much of the prosperity and popularity which has been meted out to them is due in no small degree, to her faithful and loving counsel and encouragement. A family of five children were added to their home, viz: Earl, deceased, married Frances Brown, also deceased; Jane, deceased; Jane (2), who married Alonzo S. Kinney, and left two children, Lewis A. and Fred A.; Lewis who died at the age of fourteen months; and Annie Laura, the wife of Sam A. Hayes, a carpenter and joiner who resides in North Norwich with our subject. Mrs. Hayes is the mother of one child, Jennie Earleen. Mr. Carpenter is a man of intelligence and a close observer of human nature, and his long attendance in the court room has so familiarized him with the different phases of character that he can read the countenance like an open book. He had a hard struggle with poverty in his boyhood and his sympathies have always been with those who work with their hands rather than their brains, and to a worth representative of this class he finds pleasure in giving assistance in the shape of employment, the most desirable form of charity.

I have done a little more research. There is another Thomas besides the General.

4th regiment lists Thomas and James as privates (New York in the Rev.) Westchester county page 214, page 266 lists the two under the Land Bounty rights - but this is in the 2nd regiment of Westchester County under General Thomas Carpenter. So they have switched regiments. How does one find those records?

From the Roster of Troops, page 339
There is only one James listed (private under Crane and Truesdell) 4th regiment
There are three Thomas listed:
1 - Lieut. Under Thomas/ Thomas (Also states  run through the body with a bayonet at Harrison's Purchase, November 8, 1778. Shoemaker, Harrisons, Westchester Co. C20, I 125 is this a book)
2. Private under Harper/Drake
3. Private under Crane/ Truesdell (4th Regiment)

On the 1790 Census, 1800, 1810, both James and Thomas. For Harrisons, Purchase Township, Westchester County. We know that my James is there.

Elijah Carpenter along with Colvill Carpenter are listed on (page 253) Orange County Militia 1st regiment (New York in the Rev - Land Bounty Rights)

I also read some things about a Thomas Carpenter in the Purchase Monthly meeting. The son of Joseph. (perhaps older brother to James, son of Benedict) but the Carpenter Book does not list a son named Thomas for Joseph Carpenter s. of Benedict. I need to investigate the dates to see what generation they are discussing. Could this be the Thomas we are looking for? They would be first cousins.

Freelove Fowler

Subject: [CARPENTER] Freelove Fowler
To: CARPENTER-L@rootsweb.com
Hi all,
A while ago I played devils advocate and challenged the marriage of Benjamin (b. 1762) to Freelove Fowler siting the fact that there were other Freeloves in the area. One example was a Freelove Thorn, a quaker who had married a Fowler, that could have been Benjamin's wife. Well after a little research I located the real Freelove through the "Abstracts of Wills Vol V 1754-1760, The New York Historical Society, 1896. on Page 56". The abstract is as follows:
Page 223.--In the name of God, Amen, January 3, 1755. I, MOSES FOWLER, of North Castle, in Westchester County, Innkeeper, being very sick. I leave to my wife Elizabeth the best bed and furniture, and one cow, one horse, "and a green plush side saddle and a bridle." Out of the remainder of my personal estate all debts and funeral charges to be paid, and of what is left my wife is to have 1/3. I leave to my beloved sons, Henry and Newbury Fowler, all the farm where I now live, being in North Castle, with the house, barn, and orchard, to be divided when my eldest son Henry shall be 21, Also all my piece of land in the East Patent in North Castle. I leave to my eldest son Henry my silver pike, which was given to me by my beloved father, William Fowler, in his will, and I leave to my youngest son Newbury my scimetar which was given to me by my father in his will. I leave to my daughter, Freelove Fowler, 1/3 of movable estate, "and if it should not turn out œ40, my son Henry shall make it up." To my daughter, Esther Fowler, I leave 1/3 of movable estate, and if it does not amount to œ40, my son Newbury is to make it up. My wife is to have the use of all the farm where I now live so long as she remains my widow. I make my brother, Caleb Fowler, and my brother in law, Samuel Haight, executors. If they both die, then my brother in law, Robert Dickinson, and Peter Totten, Jr.
Witnesses, Samuel Dean, David Lane, Gershom Miers. Proved, April 3, 1755.
In this abstract it sets the Fowler line, has the proper location and friends and also answers who Benjamin's son Henry was named after. Jack

Thanks John,
Wondering what info might be contained on Ruth Carpenter, daughter of Caleb. Ruth was born in 1776 and married John Kipp. Would really be interested in info on her children if it lists them. Thanks.

Birth: 24 JAN 1776 in NY
Death: 21 MAY 1836 in Sparta,Yarmouth,Elgin Co.,Ont., Canada
Note:
Ruth Kipp was born January 24, 1776 in New York (also in Westchester Co. probably near Chappaqua, NY). Her parents were Caleb Carpenter and Amey Carpenter. She died May 21, 1826 (Sparta, Ontario....same observation as for John Kipp's records).

"The Quaker Settlement in Yarmouth Township, Elgin County, Ontario" byKaren-Lynn Stafford, 1987, University of Western Ontario, 156 p.
The author reports that at the Norwich Monthly Meeting held 14 Oct 1829proceedings of disownment were taken against several women of theYarmouth Preparatory Meeting (Yarmouth had gone to the Hicksites in the1828 split within the Quaker faith). Among the disowned were "Ruth Kipp,wife of John".

More about John and Ruth, founders of Sparta, Ont. Zipporah subsequently remarried her cousin, Caleb Carpenter, in a second marriage for both, in a Quaker ceremony in Chappaqua, New York in 1796. Caleb and Zipporah were Quakers; James Kipp's parents had been Quakers. In addition, James had two brothers who, as Quakers, remained neutral during the Revolution. It is not surprising then, that when James and Zipporah's son, John, married Caleb's daughter, Ruth, that they retained their Quaker background. When John and Ruth moved to Canada, (probably after Zipporah's death in 1818--which dovetails nicely with the foundation of the Quaker community in 1819) they moved with other Westchester Quakers to the Quaker community of Sparta, Ontario. Since Canada was part of the New York Yearly Meeting of Quakers, the Kipps did not move outside the political sphere of their religious group. This may have seemed more important to them than the fact that they were emigrating to another country.

I may well be force-fitting the wrong Coles here and, perhaps, the son was actually the Coles you seek. It seems clear that there were two, contemporary Coles, apparently cousins.David S. Carpenter, however, by location, name and timing seems most likely the son of:"COLES CARPENTER b. ca. 1802-5, m. SARAH MAGDALA SYPHERS (baptized Grand Lake, Queens Co., NB 10MAR1811), daughter of David and Mary (Earle) Cyphers."Burdsill' (58) and 'Ellinor' (58) Carpenter were on page 16 of the 1861 census of Richmond Parish. Coles Carpenter (57) was on page 58. David (30) and 'Emly' (26) Carpenter were on page 55. Again this suggests that David was Coles' son.Perhaps probate records of Carleton Co. might resolve the matter.Thomas.

Canadian Forces
Decoration CAO 457 19-9-55 128-25

WIKIPEDIA: CFD - image of medal
The Canadian Forces' Decoration (post-nominal letters "CD") is a Canadian award bestowed upon members of the Canadian Armed Forces who have completed twelve years of military service, with certain conditions. ...
The decoration is awarded to all ranks, who must have a good record of conduct during the final eight years of claimed service. ...
The decoration is awarded to officers and non-commissioned members of the Regular and Reserve forces, including honorary appointments within the Canadian Armed Forces. However, time served while on the Supplementary Reserve List does not apply. The medal may be awarded to persons in possession of any long service, good conduct, or efficiency decoration or medal clasps, provided that the individual has completed the full qualifying periods of service for each award and that no service qualifying towards one award is permitted to count towards any other.
Service in the regular and reserve or auxiliary forces of the Commonwealth of Nations is counted towards the decoration if the final five years have been served with the Canadian Armed Forces and no other long service, good conduct, or efficiency medal has been awarded for the same service.

Polly worked in the textile industry most of her life and most recently worked with Cabarrus County Schools until her retirement. She was a current member of Pine Grove Baptist Church in Midland and was also a past member of Roberta Baptist Church in Concord. She was a loving mother, grandmother and great-grandmother and was always respected everyone. She was an amazing mother who raised six of her own children while at the same time, helping to raise several of her own brothers and later, a number of her first husband's siblings. Her second marriage brought her a whole new family but she always had plenty of love to share and she loved them all very dearly. She was the eternal optimist and always found something good in everyone she met. If someone was having a bad day, her smile and uplifting words would always cheer them up. She had a green thumb and always had a beautiful yard and garden at her home. She loved spending time on Sunday afternoons with her family. She also loved birdwatching from her porch and doing crossword puzzles and jigsaw puzzles - always surrounded by her family. The annual fall beach trips and Christmas shopping trips with "the girls" will forever remain some of our family's most precious memories

Briefing Page

The following briefs were done at different times and they slightly overlap in genetic genealogy terms and comments.They are provided to assist the reader to better understand the topics given. All 3 parts are given on this page.

Part 1
An introduction to the Carpenter Cousins Y-DNA Project
Part 2
Basic Carpenter Cousins Project Genetic Genealogy
Part 3
Genetic Genealogy – Y-DNA testing & examples

Part 1 An introduction to the Carpenter Cousins Y-DNA Project

The Carpenter Cousins Y-DNA Project – A surname project with 42 organized groups, one semi-organized group (98) based on R-M269 and a general catch all group (99). We accept Y-DNA testing from all DNA testing companies. We have identified some 127 unique genetic profiles for the project. This is as of December 2023.

We have a basic drop down pedigree for each group. Surname is Carpenter unless noted otherwise. See: https://carpentercousins.com/generallineage.htm - This is where you can get an idea of where their lines come from - aka Their Most Recent Common Ancestors (MRCA). Please note the C# which is a record information number (RIN) from the main genealogical database.

On our independent web pages, such for the Carpenter Cousins Y-DNA Project (since 2002) at: https://carpentercousins.com/carpdna.htm, Data Tables (1-4) will show the Y-STRs but not Haplogroup or surnames. Some groups have a name that is triangulated data for the primary group immigrant or the common ancestor for the group. Click on the member ID on Table 1 and that should take you to their position on the drop down pedigree.

FYI - We started our Project way before FTDNA started their online group efforts. Our genetic genealogy shows our Y-DNA markers (Tables 1-4) and basic lineages (drop down pedigrees) to show the genetic and genealogical triangulation of our groups. FTDNA groups do not allow such drop down pedigrees.

Many of our organized groups, but not all, have a descendant report that can be found on the left side of the main Carpenter Cousins web page. The number after the surname is the RIN (aka C# on the lineage page). Each report has a name index. Again, FTDNA groups do not allow such descendant reports.

While most groups are surnamed Carpenter, there are some Zimmerman(n) groups and Charpentier/Carpentier groups. Then there are lines that have both Zimmerman in Europe and Carpenter (angelized) in North America. Same for the Charpentier/Carpentier into Carpenter in North America.

The surname variants of Carpenter and Zimmerman seen in the genealogy include; Carpentier, Charpentier, Carpender, Carpendar, Karpendar, Timmerman(n), Simmerman(n), Simmer and Zimmer.

The surname Charpentier/Carpentier variants include Sherbondy, Sherbondeaux, Sherbonda, Sherbond, Sherbonby, Sherbundy and Sherbune.

This does not include the odd ball surnames from formal or informal adoptions (NPEs) that match specific groups genetically. See Groups 98 & 99 of the drop down pedigree charts on the Carpenter Cousins Y-DNA Project lineage page. Scroll down or use the Contents index. See: https://carpentercousins.com/generallineage.htm

FYI - The Carpenter-1-Name Project is for all types of DNA testing done at FTDNA. While there are some overlaps into the Y-DNA Project, most members are not surnamed Carpenter. Often they have a Carpenter or two in their ancestry.

Part 2
Basic Carpenter Cousins Project Genetic Genealogy

In traditional Genealogy one documents the facts of person A connecting to person B, to person C and so forth back into time. Genealogy is based on the facts of birth, marriage death and the consecutiveness of marriages to confirm relationships. All is very logical and predictable as long as you have the documentation proving what you claim.

If one can not connect them in some manner with some sort of documentation then we are left with speculations and educated guesses. This is unless we find another way of documenting family members using genetic DNA testing. Specifically we can use a Y-Chromosomal (Y-DNA) genetic test, which has been proven and very successful in surname studies like the Carpenter Cousins Y-DNA testing.

In Genetic Genealogy we have the hybrid of genealogical with DNA testing to help break down genealogical road blocks and to show genetically related individuals who have been DNA tested. This is done via triangulation. Simply person A matches person B genetically (the base of the triangle) and when they compare their genealogies they find the most recent common ancestor (MRCA) which forms the peak of the triangle. It is all very simple to show person A and person B are connected genetically and genealogically.

It is all very simple until you have person A matching person B genetically but NOT genealogically. There are books written on all of the above including things to do when the "very simple" is no longer simple.

One technique is using a Y-DNA surname study like the Carpenter Cousins Y-DNA Project. There one collects the same or similar surnames using Y-DNA testing and sort them into genetic groups. These genetic groups are based on Y chromosome Short Tandem Repeats (Y-STRs) that form a genetic profile or genetic fingerprint. This is done by using the numerical value indicating the number of protein repeats of each specific DNA Y-Chromosomal Segment – aka DYS – marker. For example, if DYS19=14, which is the group mean in this case, and one member has DYS19=15 then that 15 value is considered a mutation to the group mean.

Another important item is the number of Y-DNA markers tested. The more Y-DNA markers one compares, the better. This is because it increases the probability of the genetic relatedness. With any group, our determination of genetic relatedness is often based on 37 markers. More markers up to 111 markers help narrow the genetic relationship between matches.

More than just Carpenter surnames

No doubt you will have observed that we are showing Zimmerman and Carpenter surnames in the Carpenter Cousins Project. For many immigrants to America, they Anglicized their surnames as they assimilated into their adopted homeland. In German, Zimmerman(n) is old German for a worker of wood which matches the word Carpenter in English.

In other Carpenter Cousins Y-DNA based groups we can see even more surname variants than this. Imagine the variant names like Charpentier, Carpentier, Carpender, Timmerman, Simmerman and even Sherbondy (phonetic of Charpentier) just to name a few.

NPE Events.

THEN occasionally we get those with a formal or informal adoption of another surname entirely matching our different Carpenter Cousins Y-DNA Project Groups.

Imagine a young widow with a very young son remarrying. The son bonds with his step-father and adopts his surname. In older times this was an informal adoption. In more modern times, society has more formalized this into a legal adoption process. But in olden times things were less formal and a husband was assumed by the community to take care of all children.

Are there other versions of this Non-Parental Events – aka Non-Paternity Events (NPEs)? Yes. This can include rape, child stealing and other similar things.

This can work towards a Carpenter Cousins family or away from a known Carpenter Cousins family. And can cause a situation where the genealogy is correct but you get unexpected DNA results.

In many Carpenter Cousins groups there are such individuals who become part of our general Y-DNA groups 98 and 99. On occasion we create a new genetic group and identify them as independent genetic groups. Please read the notes and explanations given within their notes.

The following image shows Group 10, Group 38 and a single sample from Group 98 that are related to Group 2 genealogically, but not geneticically due to NPE events.

Disconnection

Many groups are connected genetically through Y-DNA genetic profiles but have disconnected genealogy. And they can still be considered a close genetic family.
A disconnected genealogy indicates a roadblock in documentation or insufficient data to connect point A to point B. It is important that DNA Projects show their work in triangulation of both the genetic DNA matches and how lineages fit together genealogically. Or how we believe they may fit genealogically. Disconnected or unconnected genealogy lines even with Y-DNA testing sometimes can not bring the parts together as a genealogical whole.

Summary

This brief was designed to help educate and encourage Carpenter Cousins to connect genetically and genealogically. Why? Because if you are related (genetically or genealogically) in any way, please be part of the solution! Help share your genealogy and please participate in Y-DNA testing!

In Genetic Genealogy there are many very well done books and many web pages that show how the genetics match up with the genealogy. The following links will provide a basic guide on DNA testing and a follow up on two advanced tests. Please remember that there are different DNA tests and that each DNA test is a tool with their own plusses and minuses.

Part 3
Genetic Genealogy – Y-DNA testing & examples

Genetic genealogy is the combination of DNA testing along with documented paper trail documented genealogy. The goal is to triangulate the paper trail ancestry along with the genetic matches back to the most recent common ancestor (MRCA).

Y-DNA testing of 12, 25, 37, 67, 111 or more Y-STR (Y chromosome – Short Term Repeats) markers allow us to have a genetic finger print or genetic profile of numbers to compare to others who have Y-DNA on similar markers.

Each of these markers has a name. In general they are called DYS (DNA Y-chromosome Segment) with a number after it. Next are a couple of examples.
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/List_of_Y-STR_markers

DYS19 is a single copy marker and DYS394 is now merged with it. Single copy markers have a single number value like DYS19=16. This number represents the number of genetic protein repeats found in what is called an allele.

The DYS19 alleles are seen with the following numerical values; 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, and 19.
https://strbase-archive.nist.gov/var_DYS19.htm

DYS385 is a multi-copy marker, and includes DYS385a and DYS385b. Multi-copy markers have two genetic protein chain peaks given in two numbers like DYS385a=11 and 385b=14.

DYS385 alleles are seen with the following numerical values; 8.2, 8.3, 9.1, 9.2, 9.3, 10.1, 10.2, 11.1, 11.2, 12.1, 12.2, 12.3, 13.1, 13.2, 13.3, 15.1, 15.2, 16.1, 16.2, 18.2, 19.1, 19.2, and 20.2. Most Y-DNA testing companies will round to the nearest whole number.

https://strbase-archive.nist.gov/var_DYS385.htm

DYS464 is a multi-copy marker and is consider a fast mutator (mutating) marker compared to the previous two DYS markers cited. The first four copies are called: DYS464a, DYS464b, DYS464c, DYS464d. Marker DYS464 is also known to occur more than four times and they are cited with the alphabetical sequence.
DYS464 has an observed allele range of 9 to 20 inclusive. They are viewed similar to; DYS464a=11, DYS464b=14, DYS464c=15, DYS464d=17.
https://isogg.org/wiki/DYS_464

In the Carpenter Cousins Y-DNA Project, Table 1 (marker set 1-25) and extracts for Groups 1, 2 & 3 provides an example of these and other DYS markers in use. Marker numbers shown in light grey boxes are mutations (aka differences) to the group mean.

When comparing the numerical value differences between Group 1 (Christopher) to Group 2 (William) the difference totals about 20. This large Genetic Distance clearly shows there is no close genetic (aka Y-DNA) relationship between these two groups.

When we compare the horizontal lines of Group 2A (Joseph) to Group 1 the Genetic Distance (GD) is 19. Still way too different and still not closely related.

When no ID number is given and a name is provided, that shows the common ancestor for that group and defines the Group mean or average of DYS numerical values.

But, when we compare Group 2 to Group 2A mean values, there is only one numerical difference (aka Genetic Distance of one) at DYS24. DYS24=25 for Group 2 compared to DYS24=24 for Group 2A.

This one numerical marker difference shows a Genetic distance of 1 at DYS24 in Group 2/2A has been determined to be a sub-group marker. Why? Because Group 2 and 2A have the exact same genealogical and genetic ancestor named William Carpenter-662 born about 1610 in England who came to America in 1635 and who settled in Providence, Rhode Island.

A mutation occurred on DYS24 making 25 a 24 for all male descendants of Joseph Carpenter-5312 (aka C#5312) born in 1693. See his drop down pedigree position among other Y-DNA testers of Group 2/2A at: https://carpentercousins.com/generallineage.htm#gp2aanc – depending on screen settings you may need to scroll right and up a little bit.

The number after the surname above is a Record Information Number (aka RIN or a C#) from the Carpenter Cousins Project genealogical database. This RIN is an identifier used in all public reports in the Carpenter Cousins web pages, especially when it is not clear which genetic group the person is from.

Group 3 (William) has William Carpenter-584 born about 1605 in England. This Group 3 immigrant ancestor came to America in 1638 and settled in Rehoboth, Massachusetts.

I want to make it clear that genealogically and genetically that the Group 2 William Carpenter and the Group 3 William Carpenter are not the same person. They have different named spouses and children. In addition we can tell their male Carpenter descendants apart genetically.

When we compare Group 2 (William) to Group 3 (William) there is a Genetic Distance (GD) of one (1) at 25 markers. The difference is at DYS464d. Group 2 has the value of 16 and Group 3 is 17.

Since DYS464 is a fast mutating marker, one would expect a closer relationship genetically than the Group 2/2A genetic difference with its more stable marker. And if we were only comparing 25 markers both have a Genetic Distance of one (1) aka GD=1. Then the answer would be yes, if we knew they had a confirmed common genealogical ancestor.

Sadly, many decades ago, the Carpenter Cousins Project disproved the speculated common ancestor after specific English wills were reviewed. The conclusion from 1976 was disproved with a better digital copy of the will in 2002. Their common genealogical ancestor was proven wrong and removed.

In addition, the 25 Y-DNA marker set is now considered inadequate or in other words too few DYS markers in comparison to using 111 markers. More markers matching over greater numbers of markers provide a higher probability of relatedness.

When we compare Group 2 to Group 3 mean averages over 111 Y-DNA markers we find THREE (3) differences. The Genetic Distance of 3 (GD=3) is on the following DYS markers. These differences, without a common genealogical ancestor, are indicative that they are indeed a separate genetic group.

Summary of discriminants between Groups 2 and 3:

DYS464d (13 to 25 marker set)
Group 2 = 16
Group 3 = 17

DYS413a (38 to 67 set)
Group 2 = 21

Group 3 = 22

DYS635 (68 to 111 set)
Group 2 = 23
Group 3 = 24

John F. Chandler, PhD, our DNA expert, wrote the following on the Group 2 and Group 3 discussion section.

"However, the remaining marker, known as Y-GATA-C4 (or more properly as DYS635), turns out to be yet another discriminant between the two groups.

Based on this now-confirmed discrepancy, along with the originally discovered difference at DYS464d, and the additional difference at DYS413a, we can state with 95% confidence that the most recent common ancestor of the two groups was more than 2 generations before the immigrants and less than about 20.

Therefore, the DNA testing has very nearly ruled out the often-repeated claim that the Williams were first cousins. The most likely estimate is about 7 generations before the immigrants, but that is a very rough estimate, and the 95% confidence interval is a more reasonable description of what the DNA is telling us."

See the full discussion at: https://carpentercousins.com/carpdna.htm#toc006

Sadly, despite the best efforts of many Carpenter researchers over the last two decades, no common genealogical ancestor between Group 2 and Group 3 has been proven.

A GD=3 is also known as a 108/111 marker match. There is a 50% probability or confidence that Group 2 and Group 3 are related genealogically at about 6 generations. Then we see that at 11 generations, a 95% probability.

FTDNA on this chart is a little liberal in their mathematical formula of relationships. The key to remember is that if you change one factor in the calculations then the probability changes.

Regardless of what type of DNA you test with, most DNA testing companies want you to have more matches even if they are very distant. Thus the buyer needs to be aware of this and that all genetic probabilities of relationships or educated guesses need to be taken with a grain of salt or with a bit of skepticism to not interpret such dates/relationships literally.

A recap of Genetic Genealogy and the Carpenter Cousins Y-DNA Project.

The Carpenter Cousins Y-DNA Project shows the genetic markers of each member in their respective genetic groups. We do this by result Tables 1 to 4 on the Y-DNA Project main web page. See:
https://carpentercousins.com/carpdna.htm - See Table of Contents.

Then we show the drop down pedigrees of the members back to their common group ancestor if they are genealogically and genetically triangulated.

If they match their group genetically but not genealogically then they are shown with a detached or unconnected lineage.
The Carpenter Cousins Y-DNA Project lineage pages can be viewed at:
https://carpentercousins.com/generallineage.htm

I, John R. Carpenter, have kit number 5734 in Group 3. When you go to Table 1 then Group 3 you will see my ID number. Click on 5734 and the link will take you to my position on the Group 3 lineage page. Or see the following link. https://carpentercousins.com/generallineage.htm#5734 – depending on your screen settings you may need to scroll right a up a little to see my red colored kit number.

By making the page image smaller you should be able to see my genealogical connection to other members of Group 3. Below my red kit number is some blue text. This blue text shows mutations to the Group 3 mean. When there is a question mark it is a marker we are watching for but not yet tested.

The picture below shows my basic lineage from the Group 3 ancestor along with the generations in which my mutations have occurred. This took some time in finding cousins to Y-DNA test and to triangulate the data. The picture is also on line at: https://carpentercousins.com/5734-Mutations.jpg

I have now explained how Genetic Genealogy is used in the Carpenter Cousins Y-DNA project and provided some examples of how it is used.
